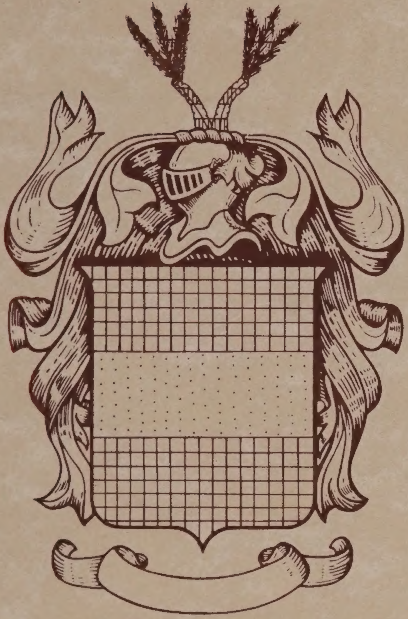
Coat of Arms Historiography



Briner

The Briner Coat of Arms illustrated left was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Briner Coat of Arms design can be found in Rietstap Armorial General. Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the Arms (shield) is as follows:

> "De sa. a la fasce d'or."

When translated the Arms description is:

> "Black; a gold middle third."

Above the shield and helmet is the Crest which is described as:

> Deux prob. fascees d'arg. et de gu. de quatre pieces, sommees chacune d'un panache de plumes de coq de sa."

A translation of the Crest description is:

> "Two elephant trunks divided horizontally in four pieces silver and red, out of each is black rooster feathers."

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A Motto was not recorded with the Briner Coat of Arms.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name and personal characteristics. The surname Briner appears to be patronymical in origin, and is believed to be associated with the English and Germans, meaning, "descendant of Briner, pet form of Briner." The supplementary sheet included with this report is designed to give you more information to further your understanding of the origin of names. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurrence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations. The most prominent variations of Briner are Briners, Breiner and Breiners.

Census records available disclose the fact there are approximately 500 heads of households in the United States with the old and distinguished Briner name. The United States Census Bureau estimates there are approximately 3.2 persons per household in America today which yields an approximate total of 1600 people in the United States carrying the Briner name. Although the figure seems relatively low, it does not signify the many important contributions that individuals bearing the Briner name have made to history.

No genealogical representation is intended or implied by this report and it does not represent individual lineage or your family tree.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Please Note:

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

Bank robber Dillinger still charms

■ 70 years after FBI killed him, infamous Hoosier bandit is still popular with public.

By Stephen Kinzer
The New York Times

CHICAGO — On a steamy night 70 years ago, the debonair bank robber John Dillinger, who had reached a level of fame equaled only by Charles Lindbergh and Franklin Roosevelt, stepped out of the Biograph Theater in Chicago and was shot to death by FBI agents who were waiting in ambush.

To observe the anniversary of his death, a band of historians, crime buffs and others met Thursday night at a tavern near the Biograph. Shortly before 10:30, the hour at which Dillinger and two female companions emerged after seeing the gangster film "Manhattan Melodrama," the group walked to the alleyway where his killers had laid their trap.

As the plaintive strains of "Amazing Grace" wafted from a bagpipe, Robert Ritholz, an amateur historian and artifact collector, solemnly poured a can of beer onto the ground at the spot where Dillinger fell.

Later, Mike Flores, a theater director who has immersed himself in Dillinger lore, said the shooting had touched off a public frenzy.

"Within minutes after he died, these streets were filled with thousands of people," Flores said. "No one could get in or out, not even ambulances. People were dipping their handkerchiefs in his blood. He was like a rock star."

Although Indiana lays a claim to him because he was born in Mooresville, and although he robbed banks in at least five states during his 13-month crime spree, Dillinger returned time and again to Chicago. Many people here are still in thrall to his memory.

The contradictions of Dillinger, who was beloved by many ordinary people even as law enforcement agents pursued him, still have a hold on the American imagination. Several new works seek to capture the contradictions of this charming bandit.

A new biography appeared in May, and a study of the gangster era of the 1930s, when Dillinger flourished, was published this month. Half a dozen films have been made about him, and more are in various stages of development. The Chicago-born playwright David Mamet, who specializes in dissecting the criminal psyche, has written the screenplay for one of them.

Dillinger burst into the public imagination at a time when American institutions seemed to be collapsing. Many people were especially angry at banks, so by robbing them, Dillinger took on the aura of a Robin Hood. Newspapers across the Midwest printed letters from his admirers, full of praise for a man who "robbed those who became rich by robbing the poor" and who "isn't half as cheap as a crooked banker or crooked politician."

Some people in this part of the country still feel that way.

"He did steal money," said Tom Pyplatz, a businessman who this week visited the John Dillinger Museum in Hammond, Ind. "But he gave a lot of it away to very poor people."

Among the museum's treasures are the trousers Dillinger was wearing when he was killed and his original tombstone, which had to be replaced at his grave site in Indianapolis in 1958 because souvenir-hunters had chipped so many pieces from it.

In Chicago, more than 50 sites have been conclusively tied to him or members of his gang, including the Barrel o'Fun Tavern, where Dillinger first met his girlfriend, Evelyn Frechette, and two bordellos run by Anna Sage, the madam who later betrayed him.

Ambushed: John Dillinger, shown in 1934, was born in Mooresville, Ind. On July 22, 1934, federal agents gunned down Dillinger in an ambush outside the Biograph Theater on Chicago's Northside.

Wild horses protected at huge cost to public

By Martha Mendoza and Angie Wagner
Associated Press

OSAGE COUNTY, Okla. — On the Oklahoma plains, where the tall grass and flowing creeks provide refuge for ragged and graying wild horses, rancher John Hughes keeps burial pits ready for the ones too weak to survive.

No matter how many horses Hughes buries, he doesn't have to wait long for another trailer full of live ones to arrive.

There are always more. Capacity here is 2,000 horses, and today there are 15 more than that.

These are the legendary wild horses of the American West — for some a living symbol of America's natural strength and beauty, for others a feral pest that has overpopulated dwindling public lands.

The horses of this aging herd, ter and further require them to keep the horse for a year before they can receive a title. That has reduced the number eventually reaching the slaughterhouse to about 600 a year, according to the attorney representing the two remaining horse slaughterhouses in the United States.

Another plan, to use a birth-control vaccine on wild mares, is working but has been given to only about 1,500 horses since 1992.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that set of discs. Discs may be purchased individually or as sets.

Please Note:

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

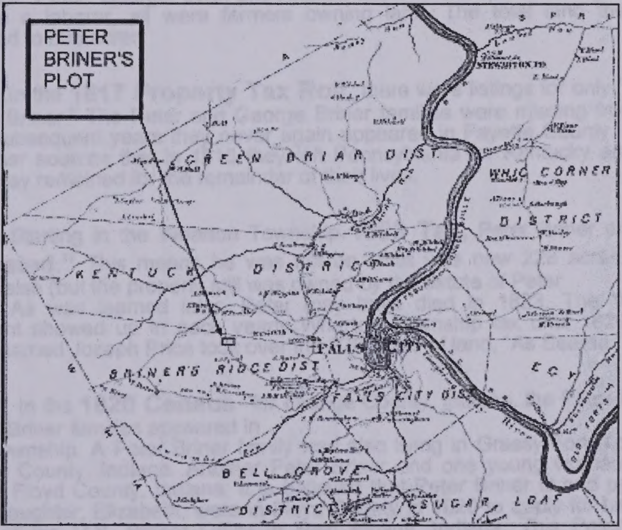
ABOUT PETER BRINER

The earliest known ancestor of a certain group of people with the last name, BRINER or BRYNER, is Peter Briner. It is estimated that he lived from approximately 1750 to 1823. He first appeared in Fayette County, Pennsylvania at the time of the first United States Census of 1790. The census taker listed "Peter Brinner: as the head of the family. There were four (4) males and four (4) females listed to Peter Briner in addition to himself. The census taker listed the Peter Brunner Family in the same census just before the listing for the Peter Briner Family.

The next mention of Peter Briner was entry #12 of the U.S. Direct Tax of 1798 for Wharton Township, Fayette County, PA (Microcopy #372, Roll 23). This document recorded taxation of Peter Briner's land and other property of value. He had 320 acres along with the following:



PETER BRINER'S PLOT
GREEN BRIAR DIST.
WHIG CORNER DISTRICT
KENTUCK DISTRICT
FALLS CITY
BRINER'S RIDGE DIST
FALLS CITY DIST.
BELL GROVE DISTRICT
SUGAR LOAF
STEWARTON TP.

Taken from: ATLAS OF THE COUNTY OF FAYETTE-PENNSYLVANIA by G.M. Hopkins & Co. 1872, pg.59.

Peter Briner 1-House 24'x26' ....Peter Briner, Owner.

John Briner 1-Cabin 12'x14' ....Peter Briner, Owner.

Andrew Briner 1-Cabin 16'x18'..........Peter Briner, Owner.

William Kook 1-Cabin 15'x14'.........Peter Briner, Owner.

In addition: 1 – Barn & 2 – Stables

Peter's immediate neighbors were Paul Shull and Christian Wireman. Entry #13 of the same tax document was for Peter "Bruner" for 400 acres. The location of this property was elsewhere. The neighbors were Philip Kook and Henry Beeson. The "1798 Tax" document confirms the existence of the Briner, Brunner and Kook families in Wharton Township.

In the 1800, U.S. Census for Wharton Township there was a listing for the "Peter Prinor" family followed by the Andrew "Prinor" family. It is believed that, these listings were for the Peter Briner and Andrew Briner families. Peter now had two boys between 10 and 16 years of age and one son between 16 and 26 years of age; Peter was over 45 years of age. There was one daughter between 10 and 16 and a woman over 45 years of age. The older woman is believed to be Peter's wife, Catherine.

In the 1810 Census for Wharton Township, there were listings for the John "Briner," Peter "Briner," and Andrew "Briner" families. In the Peter Briner family there was one boy (approx. 23 years), believed to be George Briner (b. 1787), one young girl (approx. 20 years), believed to be Catherine Briner (b. 1790) and one older woman (over 45 years), believed to be wife Catherine Briner (b. ~1750) living with Peter Briner.

In the 1816 Property Tax Roll for Wharton Township, there were listings for "Peter, George, John and Andrew Briner." Except for George, who was listed as a laborer, all were farmers owning land. The total land they owned amounted to 295 acres.

In the 1817 Property Tax Roll, there were listings for only "John and Andrew Briner." The Peter and George Briner families were missing from the tax list. In subsequent years they never again appeared in Fayette County. We know from other sources that in 1816 they left Pennsylvania for Kentucky and Indiana where they remained for the remainder of their lives.

Starting in the Wharton Township 1823 Tax, Peter Briner property as "Unseated." This means he was not on what was now 228 acres; nor was anyone else (but the property still was owned by the estate of Peter Briner.) As was learned later, Peter may have died in 1823. The "Unseated" statement showed up in each yearly Wharton Township tax until 1829, when a person named Joseph Price took over the 228 acres of land, "As Seated."

In the 1820 Census for Orange County, Indiana, the Peter Briner and George Briner families appeared in Paoli Township. A Peter Briner family was also living in Grassy-Fork Township of Jackson County, Indiana. Another Peter Briner and one young woman was also living in Floyd County, Indiana. It is believed that Peter Briner is and possibly his oldest daughter, Elizabeth, were in Floyd County in 1820 to apply for his first land patent at the U.S. Patent Office in New Albany, Indiana. This Peter Briner in Jackson and Floyd County are believed to be Peter Briner Senior's (b. 1750) son Peter Briner Junior (b. ~1770).

No. 1210

The United States of America.

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas Peter Briner of Jackson County Indiana has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Jeffersonville whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said Peter Briner according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the Public Lands," for The East half of the North East quarter of Section thirty six, in Township five North, of Range five East, in the District of Lands Offered for sale at Jeffersonville Indiana, containing eighty acres.

according to the official plat of the survey of the said lands, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said Peter Briner

NOW KNOW YE, That the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, have Given and Granted, and, by these presents do give and grant, unto the said Peter Briner & to his heirs the said tract above described: To Have and to Hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities, and appurtenances, of whatsoever nature, thereto belonging, unto the said Peter Briner and to his heirs and assigns forever.

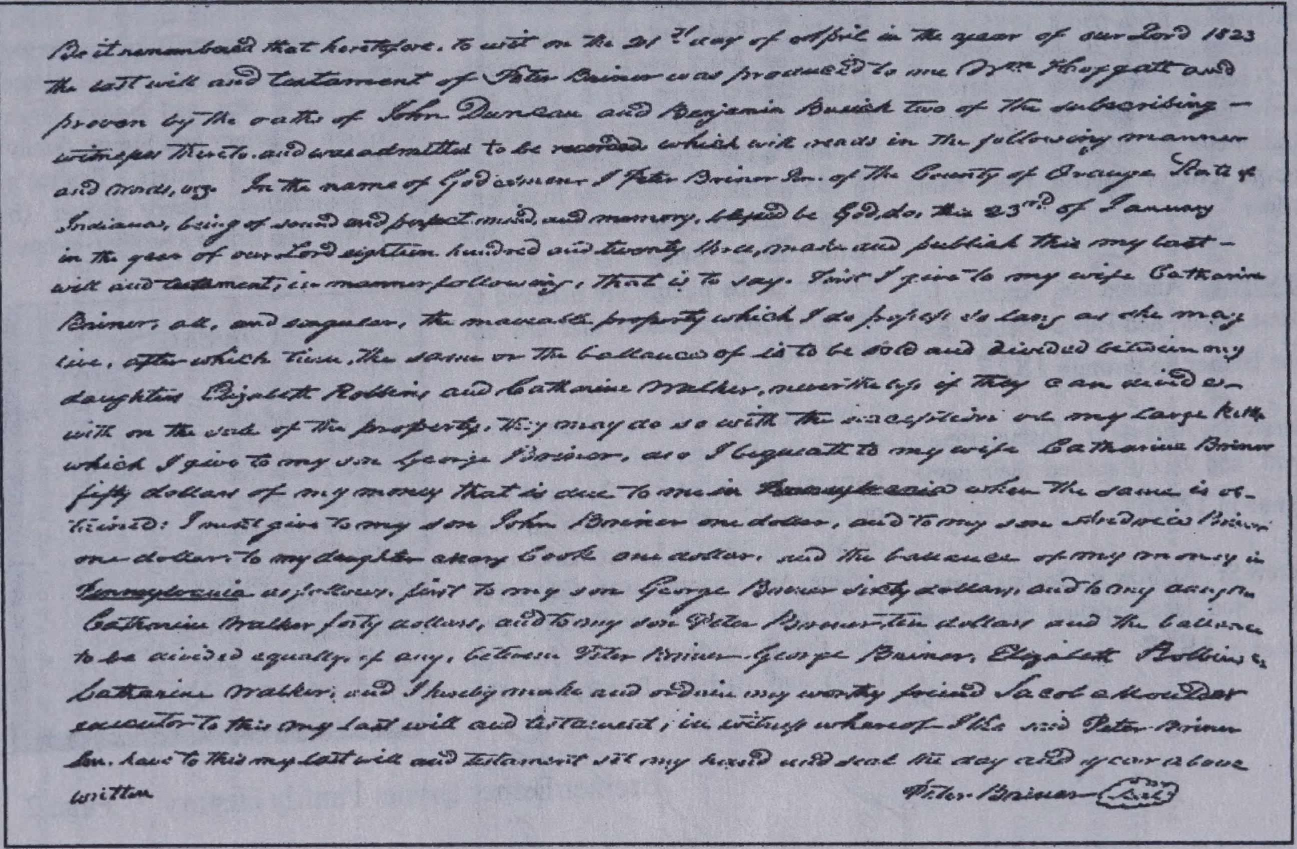
In testimony whereof, I, John Quincy Adams PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the sixth day of November in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty six, and of the Independence of the United States the ~~forty~~ fifty first

By the President,

Commissioner of the General Land Office.

The Will of Peter Briner



Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit on the 21st day of April in the year of our Lord 1823 the last will and testament of Peter Briner was produced to me Wm Hoggatt and proven by the oaths of John Duncan and Benjamin Busick two of the subscribing — witnesses thereto, and was admitted to be recorded which will reads in the following manner and words, viz. In the name of God amen I Peter Briner Sen. of the County of Orange State of Indiana, being of sound and perfect mind, and memory, blessed be God, do, this 23rd of January in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty three, make and publish this my last — will and testament, in manner following, that is to say. First I give to my wife Catharin Briner, all, and singular, the moveable property which I do possess so long as she may live, after which time, the same or the ballance of it to be sold and divided between my daughters Elizabeth Robbins and Catharine Walker, nevertheless if they can divide e-with on the sale of the property, they may do so with the exception of my large kettle which I give to my son George Briner, also I bequeath to my wife Catharine Briner fifty dollars of my money that is due to me in ~~Pennsylvania~~ when the same is obtained: I must give to my son John Briner one dollar, and to my son Frederick Briner one dollar, to my daughter Mary Cook one dollar, and the ballance of my money in Pennsylvania as follows, first to my son George Briner sixty dollars, and to my daughter Catharine Walker forty dollars, and to my son Peter Briner ten dollars and the ballance to be divided equally, if any, between Peter Briner, George Briner, Elizabeth Robbins & Catharine Walker; and I hereby make and ordain my worthy friend Jacob Shoulder executor to this my last will and testament; in witness whereof I the said Peter Briner Sen. have to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal the day and year above written

MT. PLEASANT CEMETERY

Two acres originally deeded Nov. 26, 1861 (Deed Book U, page 440), by Mahala (Blair) Johnson Shewmaker Cook, as legal heir and representative of Avis Blair (probably widow of John Blair). Mahala probably the daughter of John and Avis Blair. Although there were already burials in this cemetery before this 1861 deed, John who possibly died around 1840, Avis in 1860, and Mahala in 1863, were buried in what appears to be the family cemetery a little way south and east of here. The small cemetery has been destroyed in the past few years and broken pieces of some of the stones were moved to this larger cemetery, as recorded in this listing. Also, Paul Gregory and sons recorded these graves before the movement, as well as did Mr. & Mrs. Elmer Robbins, and Alice Zarring.

The 1861 deed to the trustee of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church said this land was to be used as a "graveyard" and whatever other purposes said church may direct. The last church building stood about one-half mile S.W. of here on the opposite side of the road. One acre there was deeded to the trustees of the "Regular Baptist Church, called Mt. Pleasant" on May 4, 1853 by James and Delilah (Johnson) Blair. This was in the East ½ of S.W. ¼ of Sec. 1 (on 1900 Atlas). An earlier deed of Sept. 24, 1836 to the trustees of this church for ¼ acre from James and Delilah Blair in N.W. ¼ of N.E. ¼ of Sec. 12, south of the one acre and on opposite (east) side of the road.

NOTE: See also Mr. Elmer Robbih's book on the Baptist Churches of Grassy Fork Township; the 1886 History of Jackson County (by Brant and Fuller); and The Mount Pleasant Church Books (Vols. 1 and 2).

This cemetery is located 2 to 2 and 1/2 miles N.E. of Tampico on the "Dudleytown Spur" road, and a half mile S.W. of the Washington-Grassy Fork township line on the east side of the above mentioned road. It is west of the Arthur Bishop property which surrounds it on N.E. & south sides, and north of the Denver Klinge residence (the old Tom Fleenor place). NW¼ of SE¼, Sec. 1, T4N, R5E
This listing was made by Donald Lee and Betty June (Waskom) Tatlock on Sunday, May 30, 1982.

Start 25 ft. north of S.W. corner inside, and to the left of gate. Rows listed from south to north, with Row 1 being on the west side and the last row (Row 23) being along the east side.

John,

Attached are a few things to whet your interest prior to our get-to-gether next week.

Photos are Amanda and her third husband Thomas White, Amanda's stone in Crothersville Cemetery (in southeast corner near main entrance but west of driveway), Otto and Maude's kids, Aunt Eva and Nora (half sisters to Lem and Maude.

APPLICATION FOR SEARCH AND CERTIFIED COPY OF DEATH RECORD

State Form 49606 (5-00)
Approved by State Board of Accounts, 2000
INDIANA STATE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

DEATH RECORDS IN THE STATE VITAL STATISTICS' OFFICE BEGIN WITH 1900. Prior to 1900, records of death are filed ONLY with the local health department in the county where the death actually occurred. For deaths occurring from 1900 to 1917, the city and/ or county of death is required in order to locate the record.

FEES ARE ESTABLISHED BY LAW (IC 16-37-1-11). Each search for a record costs $4.00. The fee is non-refundable. Included in one search is a 5-year period; the reported year of death and, if the record is not found in that year, the 2 years before and after. For records prior to 1917, the search covers a 5-year period and only one county. A certified copy of the record, if found, is included in the search fee. Additional copies of the same record purchased at the same time are $1.00 each.

IDENTIFICATION IS REQUIRED according to IC 16-37-1-7, (i.e., photocopy of driver's license, work identification card, etc.) . DO NOT SEND ORIGINALS IN THE MAIL. Death records requests sent without proper identification will be sent back to the requester without processing. Please complete all items below as required pursuant to IC 16-37-1-10 (a):

Name of deceased *	Stillborn? ☐ Yes ☐ No

* (If decedent was a married, divorced, or widowed woman, ISDH must have her legal name at the time of death. Please do not give the maiden name of a woman who changed her name by marriage during her lifetime.)

John, didn't you tell me you didn't know what Barney's middle name was? It was Oscar. Found it in the WWI Draft Registration Cards, 1917-18. Those records were pretty helpful in figuring our a lot of middle names and birth dates.

OTTO L. BRINER FAMILY

All available data indicate that the Briner family immigrated to the New World in the mid-1700s from a German province in the Palatinate in the northern foothills of the Alps and the fertile plains of the upper Rhineland region. The majority of the Palatines were Protestant and many, including the Briners, sought religious freedom promised in Pennsylvania. From Pennsylvania they migrated west to Indiana.

Otto L. Briner, born Aug. 24, 1884 near Crothersville, represented the fourth generation of Briners to live in Jackson County. His parents were Elijah Briner and Harriet M. Winkler.

Otto worked for a period of time as a crew leader of the capping operation of the canning factory in Crothersville. His second cousin, Maude E. Briner, also worked there. On July 9, 1908 they were married. Maude, born Feb. 27, 1884, was the daughter of James Lewis Briner and Amanda D. Hawn.

About a year later Otto left the canning factory and took up farming. He and his bride bought a new three-room home on a 15-acre farm about two miles southeast of Crothersville and raised a family of eight.

Their first child was Clarice Naomi, born Jan. 30, 1909, who married Walter E. Beineke Sept. 21, 1929. Clarice died Sept. 1, 1983. There were no children.

Sons Harold Raymond, born May 15, 1910, and Earl Richard, born Feb. 12, 1912, never married and lived on the homestead farming 175 acres at one point and managing a small dairy herd. The third daughter, Lois Marie born Oct. 22, 1915, also stayed on the farm and still lives there with brother Earl. Harold died Oct. 2, 1985.

Edna Meryl, the fourth child, was born April 23, 1913 and married Harold B. Myers Oct. 24, 1936. They had two sons, Ronald Lee and Jerry Allen. Edna Meryl died June 3, 1984.

A fourth daughter, Marjorie Lucille, was born Aug. 14, 1918 and married James F. Rhude March 5, 1937. Their three children were Robert Dennis, Janet Gayle, and Marilyn Jean.

Marian Louise was born April 10, 1920. On Nov. 22, 1950 she married Marvin C. Boicourt and they raised two children, Ramona and Randall.

The eighth child, Everett Neal, was born Feb. 2, 1926. He married Sheila McClain May 25, 1955. They had two children, Roslyn Lorraine and Christopher Neal. Following Sheila's tragic death in an auto accident, Everett was married briefly to Edna Archer. Later he was divorced and married a third wife, Rachel Cravens Beswick. Submitted for Marian Briner Boicourt by: Robert D. Rhude

CHARLES L. BROWNING AND HELEN ANTHONY BROWNING

Nathan Browning was born July 31, 1785 in Virginia and moved to Tennessee where he married on Dec. 23, 1808 Obedience McPike, daughter of William McPike and Obedience Holloway. William and his wife were born in Ireland and he served in the Revolutionary War after coming to the United States. Their daughter Obedience was born Jan. 1, 1789 in Greene County, TN. Nathan and Obedience moved to Lawrence Co., IN around 1821.

Their ninth child was Richard Washington Browning. He was born Dec. 14, 1822 in Lawrence Co., IN. Richard settled in Jackson County, IN where he married Mary Winkler on April 25, 1843. Mary was born March 4, 1823 in Indiana.

William Jefferson Browning was born Sept. 30, 1848 in Jackson County to Richard and Mary. He met and later married Nancy Catherine Guthrie on Jan. 13, 1870. Nancy was born Feb. 5, 1853 in Jackson County to Hugh Guthrie and Elizabeth "Nancy" Jane Rogers. Hugh was the son of John Guthrie and Elizabeth Flinn, and John was the son of Daniel Guthrie and Jane. Daniel, with the Flinn family established Leesville in Lawrence County, IN. Daniel also served the Revolutionary War.

Charles L. Browning and Helen (Anthony) Browning

John R. Browning was born to William and Nancy on Dec. 27, 1870 in Jackson County. He married Elizabeth Buna Thompson Feb. 11, 1891 in Jackson County. Elizabeth was also born in Jackson County on Aug. 12, 1874 to Ephriam Thompson and Matilda Gerhart. John and Elizabeth were the parents of 12 children including their fifth, Charles Lee.

Charles Lee Browning was born July 14, 1901 in Jackson County and married Helen Irene Anthony on March 23, 1924 in Brownstown. She was the daughter of Vandaver Ray Anthony and Emma Pruitt. Helen was born Oct. 20, 1904 in Brown Co., IN. Charles, or "Dutch" as he was known, worked in the stone mills at Bedford for more than 35 years and later farmed in Jackson County. Charles and Helen were long-standing members of Pleasant Grove Methodist Church.

Helen Anthony Browning's family were early Ohio settlers of Brown County, IN. Her paternal grandparents were William C. Anthony and Nancy A. Helms and her maternal grandparents were Samuel Pruitt and Deborah Jane Bridgewater.

Charles and Helen Browning had two daughters, Emma Catherine and Harriett Alice. Emma was born Feb. 13, 1925 in Bedford, IN and married Robert Canada on March 29, 1946 in Indianapolis. They had three children, Robert Francis, Richard Lee and Patricia Kay.

Harriett was born June 8, 1939 in Bedford, IN. She married Jerry Lynn Robbins on Aug 30, 1959 in Brownstown. Jerry was born Oct. 17, 1939 in Jackson County to Elmer C. Robbins and Bertha G. Garriott. Jerry and Harriett have four sons, Gregory Lynn, Jeffery Lynn, Mark Alan, and Michael Alan.

BUNTING-BUNTON

The origins of the Jackson County Bunton's trace back to Anthony Bunting and Ellen Barker, who married Sept. 21, 1641 at Matlock, Derbyshire, England. Fines were often imposed upon the family for their participation in the Society of Friends (Quakers). Both died in 1700 and are buried at Lupton, England. Children were William, Samuel, John, Silence, Mary, Susanna, and Job.

Angeline Brooks Bunton (born 1848) daughter of Benjamin Brooks. Taken early 1880s St. Francois Co., MO.

Samuel (1648-1724) came to America in 1682 on the ship "Kent." He settled on Crosswicks Creek, Chesterfield Township, Burlington Co., NJ (New Jersey). In 1684 Samuel married Mary Foulk (1655-1742), daughter of Mary and Thomas Foulke, who was one of the commissioners sent by William Penn to negotiate with the Indians.

Samuel's son Samuel, Jr. (1687-1741) married Mary Woolston (1685-1768), daughter of John and Hannah Cooper Woolston. Among their several children were Ebenezer Bunting (1723-1784) who removed to Wilmington, New Hanover County, NC about 1745 and married Nancy Ann Morgan, daughter of David Morgan. Children were: David (married Elizabeth Clinton); Ann (Henry Williams); Dolly (James Smith); Samuel (Rachel Irvin); and Ebenezer II who removed to Randolph County, NC by 1779. The name was changed to Bunton during the Randolph County years. The family was active in the Richland Lutheran Church near Liberty in the early 1800s. Known children were David and Ebenezer Bunton III, who settled in Jackson County in 1822 on 80 acres now part of the Muscatatuck National Wildlife Refuge, east of Seymour. Ebenezer and Ruth Bunton were charter members of Liberty Baptist (1st Baptist) of Seymour. Children were: Jennie, Alfred, Jessie Anderson, William Riley, Tennessee, Keziah. Alfred Bunton married (2) Lucinda Abigail Tinder, daughter of Rev. James and Tabitha Redding Tinder. (see Vol I). Alfred's son John Tinder Bunton was born 1839 and in 1866 married Angeline Brooks, daughter of Benjamin and Mariah Bedel Brooks. (Vol I). John and Angeline left Jackson County in 1869 to Kansas and then Poplar Bluff, MO. Their son John Lonzo (1878-1920) married Canzada Wilsher (1879-1922) daughter of John and Elizabeth Carter Wilsher. Their son Clyde Calvin born 1914 Choctaw, AR, married Opal Lee Harris. Their son Clyde J. born 1935 in Russellville, AR, married Roberta Lydia Shepherd, and had David Travillion born 1961. Clyde C., Clyde J., and David all reside in Russellville, AR. Submitted by David Travillion Bunton

OTTO L. BRINER FAMILY

All available data indicate that the Briner family immigrated to the New World in the mid-1700s from a German province in the Palatinate in the northern foothills of the Alps and the fertile plains of the upper Rhineland region. The majority of the Palatines were Protestant and many, including the Briners, sought religious freedom promised in Pennsylvania. From Pennsylvania they migrated west to Indiana.

Otto L. Briner, born Aug. 24, 1884 near Crothersville, represented the fourth generation of Briners to live in Jackson County. His parents were Elijah Briner and Harriet M. Winkler.

Otto worked for a period of time as a crew leader of the capping operation of the canning factory in Crothersville. His second cousin, Maude E. Briner, also worked there. On July 9, 1908 they were married. Maude, born Feb. 27, 1884, was the daughter of James Lewis Briner and Amanda D. Hawn.

About a year later Otto left the canning factory and took up farming. He and his bride bought a new three-room home on a 15-acre farm about two miles southeast of Crothersville and raised a family of eight.

Their first child was Clarice Naomi, born Jan. 30, 1909, who married Walter E. Beineke Sept. 21, 1929. Clarice died Sept. 1, 1983. There were no children.

Sons Harold Raymond, born May 15, 1910, and Earl Richard, born Feb. 12, 1912, never married and lived on the homestead farming 175 acres at one point and managing a small dairy herd. The third daughter, Lois Marie born Oct. 22, 1915, also stayed on the farm and still lives there with brother Earl. Harold died Oct. 2, 1985.

Edna Meryl, the fourth child, was born April 23, 1913 and married Harold B. Myers Oct. 24, 1936. They had two sons, Ronald Lee and Jerry Allen. Edna Meryl died June 3, 1984.

A fourth daughter, Marjorie Lucille, was born Aug. 14, 1918 and married James F. Rhude March 5, 1937. Their three children were Robert Dennis, Janet Gayle, and Marilyn Jean.

Marian Louise was born April 10, 1920. On Nov. 22, 1950 she married Marvin C. Boicourt and they raised two children, Ramona and Randall.

The eighth child, Everett Neal, was born Feb. 2, 1926. He married Sheila McClain May 25, 1955. They had two children, Roslyn Lorraine and Christopher Neal. Following Sheila's tragic death in an auto accident, Everett was married briefly to Edna Archer. Later he was divorced and married a third wife, Rachel Cravens Beswick. Submitted for Marian Briner Boicourt by: Robert D. Rhude

Land Records of Indiana

For

Jackson County

All original land descriptions were first recorded by the first surveyors assigned to lay out the congressional townships in the newly-opened federal land grants when opened for settlement by the early pioneer settlers. The original records do not always coincide with the civil townships established for Jackson County.

These records were compiled, copied and typed in 1972 for the subsequent transposition to the county. Authentic maps were utilized to establish those sections which currently fall into Jackson County boundary lines.

All original land ownership records are currently filed in the Archives Division, Indiana State Library, located at Indianapolis, Indiana. Microfilm copies are also on file at the State Library and at the Fort Wayne Public Library in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Historical contributions provide by Dr. Loren Noblit Vice President of the Jackson County Historical Society And D. L. "Don" Tatlock President of the Jackson County Historical Society.

How sweet to sleep where all is peace, Where sorrow cannot reach the breast, Where all life's idle throbbing cease, And pain is lulled to rest!

of agronomy of Purdue University, will discuss "Best Varieties and Cropping Practices for 1949" promptly at 1 o'clock to open the meeting. Performance of new crops and newer varieties adapted to Jackson county, with special reference to the adaptation and performance of newer corn hybrids is expected to form the principal part of the discussion.

At 2:15 o'clock, "Roughage, the Foundation of Dairy Herd Management," will be discussed by Frank DeLaCroix, of the dairy department of Purdue. He is expected to explain the saving of protein and grain that can be made with good roughage, and the benefits that may be expected in raising heifers, increasing the productive life of dairy cows, increasing the food value of milk, and controlling Mastitis and the loss

Lemuel O. Briner, 66, Expires at Residence

Lemuel O. "Barney" Briner, 66, a life-long resident of Jackson county, died late Wednesday night at his home, 116½ East Second street. He had been ill for two days.

Mr. Briner, restaurant manager at Reid's, East Second street, was born at Uniontown on June 27, 1882, the son of the late Lemuel and Amanda Briner. He was married August 6, 1908, in Crothersville to Grace Pearl Donahue, who died July 28, 1941. He was a member of the Baptist Church at Crothersville and was widely known throughout the county by a host of friends who mourn his death.

Mr. Briner is survived by four children: Louis Briner, of Bedford; Mrs. Pearl Henderson, of New Albany; Francis Briner, serving in the U. S. Navy, and Orville Briner, of Indianapolis. A brother, Albert Briner, of Indianapolis; a sister, Maude Briner, of Crothersville and a half-sister, Mrs. Nora Mathenson, of Indianapolis, and four grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Voss Mortuary with Dr. A. A. Cohn, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in charge. Burial in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Voss Mortuary after 7 o'clock tonight.

White River Stops Falling -Rain Forecast

New Rise Expected—Brownstown School Reopened—Cortland Road Reported Clear

White River stopped falling at a stage of 15.6 feet near Seymour this morning—still a foot and a half above flood level—but continued to drop near Brownstown and Medora.

Rain which has fallen here five straight days, following Sunday's downpour of 3.30 inches, continued today, making it almost certain that another rise of the rampaging river would take place. The falling water has saturated the land and filled most drainage facilities so that any additional rain is reflected quickly in the level of the river. Wednesday's precipitation amounted to .16 inches, according to Mrs. Ruth Everhart, official weather observer.

Forecasts indicated that the rain would continue this afternoon, tonight and Friday. Heavy amounts were predicted for tonight.

Cortland Road Open

Receding flood waters Wednesday allowed the state highway commission to take closed signs off one road in the county, but four others remained blocked, according to officials at the Seymour district office. Open was State Road 258 between Seymour and Cortland.

Roads reported closed were: State Road 250, between Dudleytown and Uniontown, State Road 39 at Little York, State Road 235 near Medora and State Road 135 at Millport bridge south of Vallonia.

Brownstown's consolidated school was reopened today after a two day shut-down, ordered when rural roads became inaccessible to school buses. Attendance there was reported near normal.

Medora Crest Low

Cortland's school remained closed, however. Classes ended there Monday when a dry well under the floor of the gymnasium burst, flooding the first floor of the building and killing the fire in the furnace. It was expected that the school would remain closed at least another week.

At Medora, where serious effects of flooding were expected,

Mrs. Elsie B. Newhart Expires in Fortville

Mrs. Elsie Bryan Newhart, 43, a former resident of Jackson county, died Wednesday at her home in Fortville, Ind., following a week's illness.

Mrs. Newhart was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bryan, of Tampico and was a twin sister of Mrs. Roswald Zaring, of Seymour.

Mrs. Newhart was born July 31, 1905. She was graduated from Tampico High School and the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing in Indianapolis. She was married to William Newhart, who survives.

Surviving in addition to her husband, the parents and her sister here, are seven brothers and sisters: Mrs. Reynolds Gossman, of Brownstown; Hugh Bryan, of Tampico; Mrs. George Heller, of Columbus; Mrs. Thomas Barclay, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Marybelle Littiken, of Munster, Ind.; Otis

Extension School Set Next Week

Purdue Speakers to Appear at Brownstown Theater February 3

Annual agricultural extension school of the winter for Jackson county, usually held in Seymour, will be held in Brownstown this year instead, it was announced today.

The school will be at the Royal Theater in Brownstown next Thursday, February 3, starting promptly at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and scheduled to end at 3:30 o'clock.

M. O. Pence, of the department of agronomy of Purdue University, will discuss "Best Varieties and Cropping Practices for 1949" promptly at 1 o'clock to open the meeting. Performance of new crops and newer varieties adapted to Jackson county, with special reference to the adaptation and performance of newer corn hybrids is expected to form the principal part of the discussion.

Ohio River Flood Expected—Wabash Threatens Levee

Cincinnati, Jan. 27—(AP)—The U. S. Weather Bureau predicted today possible flood stages by the week end on the Ohio River.

Meanwhile in Carmi, Ill, a state police radio report said today that a levee on the Wabash River south of Maunie, Ill., is in danger of breaking. The patrol said a break would flood thousands of acres and an undetermined number of farm homes. It also would cover the Louisville and Nashville Railroad tracks between Evansville, Ind., and St. Louis.

Heavy rain fell in the Cincinnati area today and J. Cecil Alter, weather bureau meteorologist, said the rainfall would continue for at least another 48 hours. He said a storm, developing in the lower Ohio valley, would produce about one and a half inches of rain in that time.

Based on that forecast, Alter said the Ohio River should equal or pass flood stage of 52 feet at Cincinnati Saturday or Sunday.

Jenner, Capehart, Halleck All Reported Embarrassed By Move

BULLETIN

Omaha, Jan. 27—(AP)—Last minute efforts to compromise the fight over the Republican National Committee chairmanship appeared to have failed today.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 27—(AP)—Preliminary sparring in favor of former governor Ralph E. Gates of Indiana as a possible successor to Rep. Hugh Scott, Jr., as Republican national chairman was reported reliably to have come as a surprise to high Indiana Republicans.

Numerous committeemen received telegrams from Senator William E. Jenner of Indiana opposing Gates for the chairmanship as "a wrecker, not a builder."

Senator Homer E. Capehart, here for national committee meeting, indicated he was unaware Gates was seeking the post until he came to the meeting.

Resignation Asked

"As a result of GaGtes trying to embarrass the Republican party in Indiana, including the two U. S. senators, and Representative Halleck, and the national committeewoman (Mrs. Cecil M. Harden of Covington). He (Gates) should resign from the national committee," Senator Capehart told a reporter. Fort Wayne Youth Is Honored For Heroism

Pittsburgh, Jan, 27—(AP)—Award of a bronze medal in recognition of the heroism of 18-year-old Eugene H. P. Frey of Fort Wayne, Ind., who died trying to save a 17-year-old girl from drowning, was announced Wednesday.

The Carnegie Hero Fund Commission presented the medal to the youth's father, Henry Frey of Fort Wayne. Acts of heroism in nine states and one Canadian province were recognized by the commission.

The youth drowned when he went to the aid of Ruth G. Schmidtke, who had fallen from a motor boat on Lake James July 5, 1948.

Congress Weighs New Housing Bills

Veterans Pension Put Under Spotlight In House Committee

BULLETIN

Washington, Jan. 27—(AP)—Veterans bonus and pension requests totaling billions were made to Congress today by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Washington, Jan. 27—(AP)—Congress today has a choice of three multi-billion dollar programs designed to provide homes mainly for low income families. Two are Republican-backed, the other is an administration measure.

Also at the capitol, the House Veterans Affairs Committee puts the spotlight on a veterans pension proposal carrying a multi-billion dollar price tag.

The two GOP housing bills, designed as substitutes for President Truman's housing program, are being introduced today. The Democratic measure was submitted early this month.

Many Back Bills

Fourteen Republican Senators are sponsoring the new bill being presented to the Senate. Eleven GOP House members are backing the other new measure.

Those two bills and the administration's are alike in that they all call for public housing, slum clearance, farm homes and research to cut building costs.

The scope of the public housing program is different in each. It ranges from 1,000,000 units in the next seven years in the administration measure, to 810,000 in six years in the House GOP bill, to 600,000 in six years in the Senate Republican program.

And the House bill, but not the other two, provides for $3,000,000,000 in government loans to spur private construction of 800,000 homes in the next six years for families with incomes of from $2,000 to $3,000 a year. Those dwellings would rent for about $50 a month.

For Middle Group

That section of the House GOP measure is designed to meet the shelter needs of families whose incomes are too high to qualify them for public housing, and too

Per Diem Pay Hike For Officials Asked

Indianapolis, Jan. 27—(AP)—Substantial increases in per diem allowances for most county officials are provided in a bill introduced in the General Assembly Wednesday by Rep. Howard Steele (R-Knox).

It would take effect with expiration of the present per diem law March 31 and would extend two years.

County auditors, clerks, sheriffs, recorders and treasurers in counties of more than 300,000 population would get $4. The rate would be $3.50 in counties of 150,000 to 300,000, $3 in counties of 40,000 to 150,000, $2.50 in counties of 10,000 to 40,000 and $2 in counties of less than 10,000.

These officials and assessors, circuit judges and surveyors get $1.75 per diem in counties of less than 25,000. There is no per diem for these officials in larger counties.

The bill would give chief deputy sheriffs and second deputy sheriffs in all counties $1 per diem and all sheriffs another $1.

Commissioners would get $2 in counties of less than 75,000 and $3 in counties of more than that population. Councilmen would get $12.50. The rates are now $1 for commissioners in counties of 75,000 to 99,001, $3 for commissioners in larger counties and 55 cents in smaller counties. Councilmen get $10.

The per diem is in addition to the regular salaries of the officials. There was no estimate of how much the bill would increase county appropriations.

Congress Votes Aid To Ranchers

Washington, Jan. 27—(AP)—The House today voted $500,000 to help 10 western states dig isolated ranchers and their livestock out of a long and heavy snow.

The appropriations bill was passed unanimously.

The Senate later raised the amount proposed for relief of snowbound western states to $3,000,000.

Campers Saved After Mishap In Flooded White River Bottoms

Princeton, Ind., Jan. 27—(AP)—Two campers were recuperating in a hospital here today from the effects of being marooned seven hours in a tree in the flooded White River bottom land.

The two men, Charles Laughlin, 36, and William Lawrence Padgett, 35, both of Terre Haute, were rescued Wednesday night after a boat wreck had ended a five-day voyage down the flood-swollen river. They appeared to have suffered no more than slight exposure.

Their boat capsized in a backwater about two miles downstream from Hazelton. All their camping equipment was lost, and they were forced to swim to the nearest tree. Dry land was too far away, and they shivered and shouted for help.

A rescue attempt from the opposite bank failed because of the swift current. Then Roy Thompson of Hazelton reached them with a motorboat and took them back to the town.

so gave the Scripture lesson and prayer, followed by congregational singing and the ordination sermon by Dr. Cohn.

In his ordination sermon, Dr. Cohn sketched the life of Christ and pointed out the example set by Christ for those who would enter the ministry. He cited the high standards demanded of ministers, and told of their mission in the world and the contribution which a good minister can make.

Mr. Rigsbee sang "Hold Thou My Hand" (Briggs), with Miss Barkman as accompanist.

Dr. J. M. Horton, executive secretary of the Indiana Baptist Convention, gave the charge to the candidate, and the Rev. W. R. Seat, pastor of the Washington Baptist Church, gave the charge to the church. Both ministers were friends of the late Rev. U. M. McGuire, grandfather of the newly ordained minister. An uncle, the Rev. Clive McGuire, of Indianapolis, is secretary of the Indiana Baptist Federation.

Mr. Jones presented a Bible to the Rev. Mr. McGuire from the local church, and the impressive ceremony of "Laying on of Hands" was conducted by the ministers as the candidate knelt. The Rev. John Knight, pastor of the Columbus Baptist Church, gave the ordination prayer.

The hand of fellowship was extended to the new minister and to his mother by the congregation as the organist played. The singing of the hymn, "I'll Go Where You Want Me To Go," closed the services, with the benediction pronounced by the Rev. Mr. McGuire.

As the postlude Miss Barkman chose "Ad Ecclesiae Gloriam" (MacFarlane).

The Red Cross reported its disaster committee was "prepared to go into action."

Upstream from Cincinnati, flood stages also were predicted for the Ohio.

Power Supply

Before the year's end, too, we hope to have a new substation built here, and at that time all lines centering in Seymour will be tied in at one point. When that is done, it is planned to operate the new line at 132,000 volts."

Most of the right-of-way for the new line has been secured, Mr. Frost said. It is routed across country.

the river began to fall after a rise which put it over bottomlands, but caused little hardship. More than 30 families were evacuated there when the river rose to near record heights January 6.

A few families near Medora who are directly in the path of even the lowest flood waters, had left their homes today, or were receiving supplies by boat.

Wednesday near Seymour the river dropped from the most recent crest of 18 feet to 16 feet. A crest of more than 19 feet, expected after Sunday's tremendous rainfall, was not reached.

The present flood is the third to plague the county in a month. Bottomlands have been under water for more than two weeks now.

of calves.

Both of these topics are of timely interest to Jackson county people in view of present conditions and the subject matter to be presented should help in planning intelligently for the future supply of both grain and roughage, agricultural leaders state. The program, as in past years, has been arranged by the county agricultural extension committee to offer information of primary interest to the greatest number of Jackson county people.

Discussions will be illustrated with colored slides. Ample time for questions will be given following each discussion and following the close of the session.

As always, any interested person is welcome at this Agricultural Extension School, officials state.

$10.30 and he was sentenced to from one to 10 years at the Indiana reformatory. For the sake of his family, as he is soon to become a father, his sentence was suspended by Judge George H. Gossman on the recommendation of John M. Lewis, prosecuting attorney, on his good behavior and provided he make restitution to the injured party in six months. Thought of his prospective family was the only reason for the sentence suspension, it was stated.

On December 21, John Topie and another Seymour young man took a 12-foot center part of a steel boom, specially made equipment valued at $900, from the Spray gravel pit and sold it for $5.10 to a Seymour junk yard where it was cut up, authorities said. No charges were filed but Topie confessed to taking it, authorities said. The other Seymour boy was cleared by authorities since he was working for Topie.

The two Topies were arrested Monday night, the charges filed Tuesday and they were arraigned Wednesday afternoon. The arrests were made by Detective Sgt. Paul Kern and Detectives Wayne Tolbert and Robert L. Bennett, all of the Seymour state police post. Detective Bennett, who worked on the case, accompanied by Prosecutor Lewis, arrested Bloom Tuesday.

Gates Blasted

for him."

Efforts to settle on Gates as a successor to Scott bogged down before the national committee meeting actually got under way.

Rep. Harden told the committee Wednesday night that "a tremendous job of salesmanship" by the party is needed "to do the job of saving America."

"And to accomplish it, we must all became salesmen—salesmen of Republicanism and Americanism," she said. She added that in the past "we have been in the main extremely poor salesmen."

Showdown Due Today

Meanwhile the Republican National Committee came to the showdown stage today in the battle by anti-Dewey forces to unseat Chairman Scott.

Scott called the committee together this morning with every outward sign he thinks he will be able to hang on to his non-paid job for another three and a half years.

But Scott's critics were just as publicly confident they can put over a motion to vacate the chairmanship.

Their cue then would be to offer the name of Roy E. Dunn, 62 year-old Minnesota member who gave at least token support to the unsuccessful presidential nomination bid last year of Harold E. Stassen.

Clarence Buddington Kelland, Arizona committeeman who first sparked the revolt against Scott because the chairman was hand picked for his place by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, predicted the rebels will win.

Harry Darby, Kansas supporter of Dewey who says the New York governor won't seek the presidency again, told a reporter Scott has the insurgents licked.

"We've got the edge in this fight and we're going to win," he declared.

Last minute efforts to compromise this bitterest of recent GOP fights failed Wednesday.

"Sufficient unto the day the evil thereof. I'll cross that bridge when I come to it."

60 days so that the properties can be withdrawn from rental.

The owners used a half-page newspaper advertisement to proclaim that they refused to operate "so long as rent control is on."

Patman was called in a long-distance conference with two unidentified Dallas renters and the Rev. Wallace J. Murphy, a leader of the Tulsa revolt.

In Indianapolis, landlords have decided against joining the spreading rebellion against federal rent control legislation.

At a meeting of the local chapter of the American Home Owners Union Wednesday night, a proposal to adopt the Tulsa plan for mass eviction of tenants from rental properties was voted down.

Steel Price Topic

Asked to comment on a Gallup poll indicating 69 per cent of the people now are behind him, Mr. Truman replied he has no more confidence in polls than before the November election. He added that in making up his own mind he gathers all the facts and then makes his decision on right or wrong.

The president was told that the United States Steel Corporation had declared an extra dividend and a three-to-one stock split, and was asked if this would have any effect on his anti-inflation drive. He said his only comment would refer to the price of steel which he always thought was too high.

Asked about reports that he snubbed certain people as they passed in the parade during his inauguration, the president merely said that they (not identifying the persons) passed through the receiving line at his reception and were very cordially received.

During his review of the parade, the president was reported to have failed to wave to Gov. J.

British Sub Captain Tells of Experiences While Sinking Axis Convoy.

By Associated Press.

Alexandria, Egypt, July 28.—A British submarine captain, just returned from Mediterranean operations, described today the sinking of an axis convoy off Crete by "knocking them off like wooden ducks in a shooting gallery."

Ordered to frustrate German and Italian efforts to reinforce Aegean Islands, the captain came back with a "sunk" score of five caiques, two schooners, one big Italian tanker and one troop transport.

The captain was at sea about two weeks. His detailed account of action went something like this:

(Sliding through the Aegean the submarine first came upon a convoy of two troopships escorted by a destroyer and an aircraft. The ships were loaded with

Trinity Pastor Speaks at Service Sunday Night on "The Sympathy of Christ."

CHOIR SINGS TWO ANTHEMS

Fine Attendance at Weekly Shields Park Service Sponsored by Ministerial Body.

"The Sympathy of Christ" was the subject of an inspirational sermon delivered Sunday night at Shields Park by the Rev. Clyde S. Black, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church, at the weekly union worship service sponsored by the Seymour Ministerial Association.

The choir of the Trinity Church sang two special numbers which were well received by the congregation, one of the largest of the season.

The Rev. A. A. Cohn, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was in charge of the remainder of the service as he was the only minister besides the speaker who did not have another engagement and was able to attend the service.

The Rev. John L. Prentice, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will deliver the sermon at next Sunday night's service.

The Rev. Mr. Black said in part:

To sympathize with anyone we must have knowledge of their nature and position and of their special need and peril. It is not easy to sympathize with people. We belong to different spheres and it is difficult to pass these distinctions and sympathize with those of another order and rank and position to ourselves.

The sympathy of the rich with the poor is very imperfect. The sympathy of the strong with the

NO MEETING OF SEYMOUR ROTARY CLUB TONIGHT

Members Will Attend District Assembly at Spring Mill State Park Wednesday.

No meeting of the Seymour Rotary Club will be held tonight but the members are making plans to attend an assembly of the 156th district of Rotary International at the Spring Mill Inn in Spring Mill State Park near Mitchell Wednesday.

Arrangements for the assembly are being made by Don L. Coy, past president of the Seymour club and present district governor. The Seymour club last Monday voted to dispense with tonight's meeting and support Governor Coy by attending the assembly, which opens from 10 until 12 o'clock with registration.

Hobby Exhibit, Pet Parade, Other Features Included on Day's Program.

In spite of heat which interfered with the comfort of those present, a large crowd attended the annual Farm Bureau picnic held Sunday at the Jackson county fairgrounds southeast of Brownstown.

The picnic opened with a devotional service Sunday morning with community singing accompanied by Mrs. Clifford Stockhover. A special vocal duet was sung by Misses Carolyn and Mary Ellen Stockhover and the sermon was delivered by the Rev. L. R. Morlen, pastor of the Vallonia Methodist Church. The sermon, in which the speaker emphasized the glories of nature, was regarded as outstanding by those attending the picnic.

Following a basket dinner spread during the noon hour, a pet parade was held with eighteen children participating. First place was awarded Dorothy Lee Martin, of Owen township, who had dressed up her kitten and pushed it in a doll carriage. Second place went to Vera June Sitterding, of Grassyfork township, who had a small white dog. Other pets in the parade included a pony, dogs, rabbits, a bantam rooster, cats and kittens, a goat and a crow.

In the hobby exhibit shown in the exhibit building, Raymond Weber, of Grassyfork township, placed first with a beautiful collection of mounted insects. Both he and the pet parade winner will compete at the Indiana State Fair, representing Jackson county.

John Doe Finds His Tax Bill Is Probably Going to be Tripled.

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 28.—John Doe added up his federal tax bill today, and found it probably was going to be tripled.

Mr. Doe is an ordinary taxpaying citizen. He makes $3,000 a year, has a wife and a child. Maybe your budget is far different from his, but his may give an idea of what's in store for you.

He figured that counting such things as the gasoline tax he would pay Uncle Sam, directly and indirectly, $42.10 in an average year under present rates. Then he looked at the new schedules proposed by the House ways and means committee and calculated they would raise the bill to $129.21. (Tax increases will not become effective until House and Senate have acted on the committee proposals, but best indications were that those or similar-

Ill For About Two Weeks—Seven Children Survive—Lived Here Number Of Years.

Cynthia Jane Donahue, aged 64 years, died at her home on 318 South Walnut street Thursday night at 8 o'clock, following a brief illness with pneumonia. Mrs. Donahue was taken ill about two weeks ago.

Mrs. Donahue was born in Illinois September 25, 1860, the daughter of John M. and Margaret Price Tucker, both of whom preceded her in death. She was united in marriage with Louis Donahue in 1885, the ceremony being solemnized in Jeffersonville, Ind.

For many years she was actively affiliated with the Baptist church in Seymour and was a member of that church at the time of her death.

She was also a member of the Eastern Star at Crothersville.

Four sons and three daughters survive. They are: Chester L., Jeffersonville; Guthrie, and Charles, Indianapolis; Robert, North Vernon; Mrs. Lemuel Briner, Mrs. Holland Amos and Miss Lelia Donahue, all of Seymour. A brother, Warren Tucker, of Illinois and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Hildreth, Seymour, and Mrs. James Atwater, Illinois, are also living.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Baptist church in Seymour Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the Rev. A. A. Cohn in charge. Burial in Riverview cemetery.

NEWSY PARAGRAFS

O. M. Coryell, is quite ill with the influenza at his home in Uniontown.

Mrs. J. B. Shepherd, who has been ill with the flu, is showing improvement.

Mrs. M. A. Barick, North Ewing street, who has been ill with the flu, is much improved.

Rev. J. D. Martin, who has been confined to his home with the flu is able to be out a little.

Harvey Greemann, West Fourth street, who has been ill for several weeks with typhoid fever, continues to improve and will soon be able to be about the city, it is believed.

Mrs. Clem Roegge continues in a critical condition from the flu at her home on North Ewing street. It is stated that there was a very slight improvement in her condition this morning, after a restless night.

The condition of Mrs. Ella Davis, of East Tipton street, who underwent a major operation in the hospital at Columbus on Thursday morning is reported today as satisfactory.

Mrs. John Hauenscnild returned this morning from Columbus where she has been with her sister, Mrs. Ella Davis, who underwent a major operation at Dr. Roop's hospital there.

The rain which fell during Thursday night was accompanied by a great deal of lightning, and a strong wind. It made the fields too wet for work today. It was a warm rain, which should prove exceptionally beneficial.

A dividend of 1¾ per cent on the par value of each share of the Prior Lien Stock of the Interstate Public Service Company has been declared payable on or before April 15, 1925, to prior lien stockholders of record on March 3, 1925.

Eugene Thompson, [illegible]-year-old son of Mrs. Ida Thompson, of Medora, underwent a tonsil and adenoid operation at Schneck Memorial Hospital today.

The Emerson Cub Pack will meet at the Emerson School at 7 o'clock tonight. Cubs, prospective Cubs, and parents and friends are invited to attend.

The Rev. N. J. Shatto makes the announcement that on Wednesday night, July 30, at 8 o'clock on the court house lawn in Vernon, the Rev. E. Howard Cadle and part of the Cadle radio staff of Indianapolis, Indiana, will conduct a one night revival. The meeting will be in the court room in case of rain. The public is invited.

Funeral services for Everett Moore, age thirty-eight, who committed suicide by taking poison in a cup of coffee at his home in Kurtz Thursday afternoon, were conducted at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the home in Kurtz followed by burial in the Mallet Cemetery in Brown county. The Rev. Eph Scott was in charge.

Two escapes from the Muscatatuck State Colony at Butlerville were taken into custody near Second and O'Brien streets in this city Sunday afternoon by Sgt. Harry McMillin and Corp. Chester Wilson, of the Seymour state police post. They were held at the city jail until they could be returned to the colony today.

Jack Curry, former clerk of the Seymour state police post, has returned to his home here from Bloomington where he attended the police school for aspirants for posts on the Indiana state police force. Fifty of 117 cadets who attended the school are to be selected as officers to begin their duties September 1, assigned to various posts in the state.

Funeral services for Troy Everett, twenty-nine-year-old jockey who was injured fatally Thursday afternoon at the Jennings County Fairgrounds at North Vernon when a horse running wild crashed headon into his mount, were conducted Sunday afternoon at Anderson, Ind., his home, followed by burial in East Maplewood Cemetery there.

When a short in the wiring caused a blaze in the control box of a traction car of the Public Service Company of Indiana standing in the carbarn on East Second street, the Seymour fire department was summoned and extinguished the flames. The trucks made the run at 10:10 o'clock Saturday night and the sirens attracted a large crowd to the scene.

Capt. Smith, head of the Kentucky State Highway Patrol, and Radio Engineer Stimson, head of the radio division of the Kentucky state police force, visited Seymour State Police Post No. 7 today, inspecting the post and grounds and familiarizing themselves with the method of operation of the Indiana state police system, built up in only a few years to become one of the most outstanding in the United States.

BAPTIST MEETING SET

Teachers, Officers and Families Are to Attend.

The teachers, officers and their families of the First Baptist Church Bible school will hold their annual picnic Tuesday night at 6:30 in Shields Park. Committees in charge are: committee on tables, Howard Kaufman, Mrs. Ida Kasper, Mrs. Ralph Johnson. Committee on refreshments, Mrs. J. H. Combs, Miss Ora Foster, Mrs. Ralph McGill. Committee on arrangement of tables, departmental superintendents, Mrs. Katharyn Downey, Mrs. Bertha Robertson, Mrs. Viola Cohn, Mrs. Daisey Blair, William Emhuff, Maurice Haper, Mrs. T. E. Ross and E. E. Walker. Committee on program, J. R. Blair, church school director, and A. A. Cohn, pastor.

Each teacher and officer will bring a well-filled basket, sufficient to take care of himself or herself and family. A special program involving the future of the Bible school will be brought up at the meeting. Every teacher and officer is expected to be present at the meeting.

NEW TAXES

ly high rates would eventually be enacted).

Our ordinary taxpayer figured his income tax first. He still would get a $2,000 "head of family" exemption and a $400 credit for the youngster, but the pending bill would assess a 5 per cent surtax on him. That would raise his income tax from $5.40 paid this year to $48.40 to be paid next March.

Then he discovered new taxes on a lot of things he was planning to buy.

That new fur-trimmed coat for the missus, expected to cost $100, will be taxed 10 per cent of retail price, or $10. Other new taxes he figured according to the prices he expected to pay included: 50 cents on a new toaster; $2.50 on a camera; $1 for sporting goods; $1 for a new traveling bag; $5 on a musical instrument for Junior; 50 cents on soft drinks (300 nickel bottles); and $5 on jewelry. Except for soft drinks, which are to be taxed 1-6 of a cent per ordinary bottle, these taxes are figured at 10 per cent of manufacturers' price.

Some regular items in his budget, also may be taxed heavier. For instance, he ordinarily buys half a dozen packs of playing cards a year, the tax on which would rise from 66 to 78 cents. The three gallons of liquor he buys an annum for himself and friends will cost $12 in taxes instead of $9. A set of tires and tubes for his car, will include $2.40 in taxes instead of $1.15. That new refrigerator he wants to buy will carry a tax of $10 instead of $5.50. Because the committee plans to start the

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Chicago, July 28—(AP)—There's no place like home for accidents.

The National Safety Council reported today in its latest volume on U. S. accident statistics that in 1940:

33,000 persons were killed in home accidents.

140,000 suffered some degree of permanent disability.

4,710,000 suffered some degree of temporary disability.

Statisticians figured poor judgment as the personal factor most frequently involved in home accidents and disorder, or poor housekeeping, the mechanical factor.

1 1/2 cups sliced peaches, fresh or canned (No. 2 can)

16 marshmallows (1/4 lb.)

1 teaspoon grated lemon rind

1/8 teaspoon salt

1 package lemon-flavored gelatin

1 cup boiling water

2/3 cup Pet Milk

Drain peaches well. Save juice to use in beverages or sauces. Reserve 1/2 cup peach slices to garnish mold. Push remaining peaches through a sieve. There should be 1 cup peach pulp. Cut 14 marshmallows into small pieces. Fold cut marshmallows, lemon rind and salt into peach pulp. Chill. Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Cool thoroughly, then stir in milk. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Rub with vegetable oil an 8 x 4 x 3-inch loaf pan. Cut remaining 2 marshmallows into strips. Garnish bottom of oiled pan with marshmallow strips and reserved peach slices. Whip chilled gelatin mixture with rotary egg beater until fluffy. Fold in peach and marshmallow mixture. Put in prepared pan. Chill until firm. Unmold and slice. Serves 6.

Eugene Thompson, [illegible] son of Mrs. Ida Thompson, of Medora, underwent a tonsil and adenoid operation at Schneck Memorial Hospital today.

The Emerson Cub Pack will meet at the Emerson School at 7 o'clock tonight. Cubs, prospective Cubs, and parents and friends are invited to attend.

The Rev. N. J. Shatto makes the announcement that on Wednesday night, July 30, at 8 o'clock on the court house lawn in Vernon, the Rev. E. Howard Cadle and part of the Cadle radio staff of Indianapolis, Indiana, will conduct a one night revival. The meeting will be in the court room in case of rain. The public is invited.

Funeral services for Everett Moore, age thirty-eight, who committed suicide by taking poison in a cup of coffee at his home in Kurtz Thursday afternoon, were conducted at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the home in Kurtz followed by burial in the Mallet Cemetery in Brown county. The Rev. Eph Scott was in charge.

Two escapes from the Muscatatuck State Colony at Butlerville were taken into custody near Second and O'Brien streets in this city Sunday afternoon by Sgt. Harry McMillin and Corp. Chester Wilson, of the Seymour state police post. They were held at the city jail until they could be returned to the colony today.

Jack Curry, former clerk of the Seymour state police post, has returned to his home here from Bloomington where he attended the police school for aspirants for posts on the Indiana state police force. Fifty of 117 cadets who attended the school are to be selected as officers to begin their duties September 1, assigned to various posts in the state.

Funeral services for Troy Everett, twenty-nine-year-old jockey who was injured fatally Thursday afternoon at the Jennings County Fairgrounds at North Vernon when a horse running wild crashed headon into his mount, were conducted Sunday afternoon at Anderson, Ind., his home, followed by burial in East Maplewood Cemetery there.

When a short in the wiring caused a blaze in the control box of a traction car of the Public Service Company of Indiana standing in the carbarn on East Second street, the Seymour fire department was summoned and extinguished the flames. The trucks made the run at 10:10 o'clock Saturday night and the sirens attracted a large crowd to the scene.

Capt. Smith, head of the Kentucky State Highway Patrol, and Radio Engineer Stimson, head of the radio division of the Kentucky state police force, visited Seymour State Police Post No. 7 today, inspecting the post and grounds and familiarizing themselves with the method of operation of the Indiana state police system, built up in only a few years to become one of the most outstanding in the United States.

BAPTIST MEETING SET

Teachers, Officers and Families Are to Attend.

The teachers, officers and their families of the First Baptist Church Bible school will hold their annual picnic Tuesday night at 6:30 in Shields Park. Committees in charge are: committee on tables, Howard Kaufman, Mrs. Ida Kasper, Mrs. Ralph Johnson. Committee on refreshments, Mrs. J. H. Combs, Miss Ora Foster, Mrs. Ralph McGill. Committee on arrangement of tables, departmental superintendents, Mrs. Katharyn Downey, Mrs. Bertha Robertson, Mrs. Viola Cohn, Mrs. Daisey Blair, William Emhuff, Maurice Haper, Mrs. T. E. Ross and E. E. Walker. Committee on program, J. R. Blair, church school director, and A. A. Cohn, pastor.

Each teacher and officer will bring a well-filled basket, sufficient to take care of himself or herself and family. A special program involving the future of the Bible school will be brought up at the meeting. Every teacher and officer is expected to be present at the meeting.

ly high rates would eventually be enacted).

Our ordinary taxpayer figured his income tax first. He still would get a $2,000 "head of family" exemption and a $400 credit for the youngster, but the pending bill would assess a 5 per cent surtax on him. That would raise his income tax from $5.40 paid this year to $48.40 to be paid next March.

Then he discovered new taxes on a lot of things he was planning to buy.

That new fur-trimmed coat for the missus, expected to cost $100, will be taxed 10 per cent of retail price, or $10. Other new taxes he figured according to the prices he expected to pay included: 50 cents on a new toaster; $2.50 on a camera; $1 for sporting goods; $1 for a new traveling bag; $5 on a musical instrument for Junior; 50 cents on soft drinks (300 nickel bottles); and $5 on jewelry. Except for soft drinks, which are to be taxed 1-6 of a cent per ordinary bottle, these taxes are figured at 10 per cent of manufacturers' price.

Some regular items in his budget, also may be taxed heavier. For instance, he ordinarily buys half a dozen packs of playing cards a year, the tax on which would rise from 66 to 78 cents. The three gallons of liquor he buys an annum for himself and friends will cost $12 in taxes instead of $9. A set of tires and tubes for his car, will include $2.40 in taxes instead of $1.15. That new refrigerator he wants to buy will carry a tax of $10 instead of $5.50. Because the committee plans to start the Japan applied her freezing order to United States, British, Canadian and northern Ireland assets after indicating officially that "elasticity" might be permitted if American and British freezing orders were not applied rigidly.

Matsaune Ogura, new Japanese finance minister, said Japan had enough human and material resources available in Asia to proceed with her plans for a greater east Asior order.

Marie Otte, operator of a beauty shop, reported to city police during the week-end that her purse, containing $40 and her keys, had been stolen from the shop, located on the second floor of the Jackson County Loan and Trust Company building.

ly high rates would eventually be enacted).

Our ordinary taxpayer figured his income tax first. He still would get a $2,000 "head of family" exemption and a $400 credit for the youngster, but the pending bill would assess a 5 per cent surtax on him. That would raise his income tax from $5.40 paid this year to $48.40 to be paid next March.

Then he discovered new taxes on a lot of things he was planning to buy.

That new fur-trimmed coat for the missus, expected to cost $100, will be taxed 10 per cent of retail price, or $10. Other new taxes he figured according to the prices he expected to pay included: 50 cents on a new toaster; $2.50 on a camera; $1 for sporting goods; $1 for a new traveling bag; $5 on a musical instrument for Junior; 50 cents on soft drinks (300 nickel bottles); and $5 on jewelry. Except for soft drinks, which are to be taxed 1-6 of a cent per ordinary bottle, these taxes are figured at 10 per cent of manufacturers' price.

Some regular items in his budget, also may be taxed heavier. For instance, he ordinarily buys half a dozen packs of playing cards a year, the tax on which would rise from 66 to 78 cents. The three gallons of liquor he buys an annum for himself and friends will cost $12 in taxes instead of $9. A set of tires and tubes for his car, will include $2.40 in taxes instead of $1.15. That new refrigerator he wants to buy will carry a tax of $10 instead of $5.50. Because the committee plans to start the amusement tax on tickets cost-

SWIM WEEK TO BE HELD HERE

Lions Sponsor Event In Cooperation With City Swimming Pool Commission.

ENTERTAINMENT STAGED

Dances, Music Feature Program for Club's Monthly Ladies' Night.

Plans were announced Thursday night for a city-wide "swim for health week," which is to be sponsored by the Seymour Lions Club in conjunction with the city swimming pool commission next Monday through Friday.

Announcement of the event was made at the regular weekly meeting of the Lions club, held in the dining room of the Elks Home. It was the regular monthly ladies night meeting, and an entertaining program was presented under the direction of the July program committee, of which Alfred Tower was chairman.

Harry McDonald, H. L. Remer and W. H. Pheffer were the other members of the committee, and Mr. Remer acted as announcer during the staging of the program, which consisted of specialty dances and music.

The program had been arranged by Miss Eileen Johnson, dancing instructor who had conducted classes here for several years prior to leaving the city recently to live in the east. Mrs. Pharis Stilwell was accompanist, and was in direct charge of the staging of the numbers. A number of novelty dances were presented by Wilma Jean Duffy, Imogene Chaffin, Ann Stillwell, Jimmy Bova and Martha Diamond. Mrs. Stilwell, in addition to accompanying the dancers, played a piano solo.

Glenn M. Keach, former superintendent of the city pool, is chairman of the committee in charge for arrangements for the "swim for health week," which is part of a summer program of activities sponsored by the Lions club with the cooperation of a number of other organizations and agencies. William Morgan is chairman of the general committee, and Charles Schneck is co-chairman.

Mr. Keach announced that arrangements had been made for Avery Dittmer to speak at the Lions club meeting next week and explain the operation

AGED COUNTY RESIDENT DIES NORTH OF SEYMOUR

Mrs. Margaret Hutchings, 92, Was Born in Ireland—Funeral Wednesday Morning.

Mrs. Margaret Hutchings, age ninety-two, one of the county's oldest residents, died at the home on Seymour R1 northeast of the city, at 2:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Death was attributed to a complication of diseases.

Funeral services will be conducted at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning from the St. Ambrose Catholic Church with the Rev. Father C. W. Burkart, pastor, in charge. Burial in the Reddington Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Tower Funeral Home at anytime.

Mrs. Hutchings was born at Kildare, Ireland, on May 10, 1849, the daughter of John and Margaret Nayrocker Cassidy. She moved to Jackson county about seventy-five years ago and was married in Seymour on December 9, 1889, to James Hutchings, who died on May 12, 1937.

Mrs. Hutchings was a member of the St. Ambrose Catholic Church and during her long residence near this city, she made many friends who mourn her death.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mary Finnerty, Seymour R1 and a niece, Mrs. Rose K. Cornett, of Cleveland, Ohio.

ered at the Brownstown High School gymnasium Sunday where they attended a district U. S. W. V. meeting which was attended by all the state officers.

Members were present from Lawrenceburg, Madison, New Albany, Seymour, Franklin, Columbus, Indianapolis and Shelbyville.

J. K. Prather, of Columbus, district chairman, presided at the meeting. He formely lived in Seymour. The meeting opened with registration Sunday morning followed by a basket dinner and a meeting in the afternoon.

Judge John C. Branaman, of Brownstown, George R. Tolen, of Shelbyville and Wilson C. Oren, state adjutant, of Indianapolis, were speakers at the afternoon session.

SHIELDS ON BOARD

Local Student One of Examiners For Ministerial Candidate.

Robert W. Shields, ministerial student attending Franklin College, has been asked to serve as a member in a special council being called to examine Lee Clendenning, of Vernon, Indiana, for ordainment for the ministry. The council will meet early in September at Vernon and will be composed of pastors and church representatives from the Sand Creek Baptist Association.

Mr. Shields is pastor of the Hopewell Baptist Church, near Holton, which is the second largest church in the Association.

Plan Humilitation Day.

Members of St. John's Lutheran Church at Sauers will participate in a "Day of Humilation and Prayer" service to be held in connection with the service at 9:30 o'clock next Sunday morning, it was announced today by the Rev. J. Th. Destinon, pastor.

BAND TO PLAY TONIGHT

Last Concert of Summer Season To Be Played At Shields Park at 8 O'clock.

The Shields High School Band, under the direction of Paul Rigsbee, music supervisor, will play its final concert of the summer season at Shields Park at 8 o'clock tonight.

Due to the intense heat and the attempts of local residents to find a cool spot after their day's work is completed, an unusually large crowd is expected at the park tonight to hear the concert and at the same time cool off in the open areas of the city playground.

The program follows:

The Booster March, Klein.
The Silver Cord, O'Neill.
The Donkey Serenade, Friml.
Transcendence, Frangkiser.
Lyceum Overture, Taylor.
Mexicali Rose, Stone.
Spiritual Rivers, Gault.
Selections from Inlantha, Sullivan.

dent, died at the home in Brownstown at 11 o'clock Monday night. Death followed an illness of a year's duration with a complication of diseases.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, Daylight Saving Time, from the Zabel Funeral Home at Brownstown and at 3 o'clock from the Brownstown Lutheran Church with the Rev. J. Th. Herrmann, pastor, in charge. Burial in Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Zabel Funeral Home after 6 o'clock tonight.

Mr. Daneke, a life-long resident of Jackson county, was born in Grassyfork township on March 23, 1865, the son of John and Angeline Endebrock Daneke, both deceased. He was married in June, 1889, at Sauers, to Elizabeth Schneider, who died about ten years later. Three children also preceded him in death.

For the past forty-two years, Mr. Daneke had roomed at the home of Mrs. Lucy Browning in Brownstown where he died. His night with some fires touched off and an undisclosed number of casualties. The Russians declared, however, that of 140 to 150 raiders only a few actually broke through the city's defenses and nine were reported shot down.

Finland, now linked with Germany in the campaign against Soviet Russia, broke off diplomatic relations yesterday with Britain, Russia's co-belligerent against Germany.

The break, which the Finns pictured as inevitable because of the new line-up of powers, came 17 months after Britain was shipping cash and war material to Finland to aid her earlier fight against the Russians.

Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin was reported last night in Ankara to have sent a letter to President Ismet Inonu of Turkey assuring him that Russia has no intention of attempting to seize the Dardanelles.

The letter was reported prompted by a British suggestion of a direct statement to ease any Turkish concern.

Japan's occupation of southern Indo-China went into high gear at warships and troop transports brought garrison

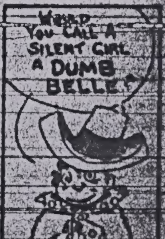
Weather Records



WOULD YOU CALL A SILENT GIRL A DUMB BELLE?

Here are official and unofficial weather records for Seymour for the day. The maximum temperature reading is from a downtown thermometer, and is unofficial. The minimum, for the past twenty-four hours, is from the records of Miss Louise Ahlert government weather observer here, and is official. The river level is obtained from the Seymour Water Co. pumping station at Rockford.

While administration lieutenants said they were confident the Senate would approve the measure this week, there were rumblings of stronger opposition in the House.

One legislator who asked that he not be quoted by name, said friends of the bill had told him there was some doubt that the measure could win final approval there in its present form.

In the Senate however, proponents of the measure observed they saw no reason for altering its terms and Senator Thomas (D-Utah), floor manager for the bill, said he ex-

NO INFORMATION AS TO LICENSE CHANGE

Auditors Expected Before Bureau Is Taken Over by Bruce K. Combs.

No information has been received here as to when the Seymour license bureau, which has been managed for several years by Forrest Kysar, will change hands and be placed in charge of Bruce K. Combs, of this city, who Tuesday was named by James M. Tucker, secretary of state, to become manager of the local license branch.

Mr. Combs received official notice of his appointment this morning by mail and he was informed it is "effective as of August 1."

Mr. Combs and Mr. Kysar are of the opinion that the change will be made as soon as auditors for the state license branch arrive at the local bureau, make the necessary audit and agree that the office is ready for the change.

Other new appointments in the license bureaus in the county, include Miss Roxie Stillwell to be in charge of the Brownstown branch, and Frank Butler, of Crothersville, to be manager of the Crothersville branch. Dates when they will assume charge of the bureaus have not been announced.

York electricians strike. Rear Admiral E. J. Marquart, commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, declared 200 skilled electricians had walked off projects in the yard, including work on drydocks in which two super-battleships are to be built. He said he had asked a union agent to send the men back to work.

Other construction, chiefly of a non-defense nature, was tied up over the metropolis.

The union called the strike, effective yesterday morning, as a result of a long dispute between electricians and the Consolidated Edison Company, Power and light distributors. The company had turned down a union demand for employment of 600 AFL electricians on a plant construction job. The Edison firm has a contract, it explained, with the Consolidated Edison, employes.

The mediation board did not announce details of the agreement under which 200 employes of the Gulf State Utility Company at Baton Rouge decided to go back to their jobs after a three-weeks strike. The original issues involved union recognition

NEW CASES ARE FILED

Two Divorces Asked in Complaints Placed on File.

Two new divorce cases have been filed in the Jackson Circuit Court within the past few days, and a civil case has been venued from Monroe county.

Elnora Bergdoll asks a divorce from William Bergdoll. They were married November 24, 1936, and separated June 6, 1941. Edward Lustig is her attorney.

Lois Powers has filed suit for divorce against Everett Powers. They were married August 22, 1931 and separated June 22, 1941. She asks a divorce and custody of children, as well as support for them. Her attorney is E. P. Elsner.

Action on a promissory note is the basis for a suit venued from Monroe county, with Mabel Branam the plaintiff and Alva Wycoff and Charles Branam defendants.

southwest were said to be applying a "squeeze" to seal the city's fate.

The Russians, however, reported Nazi tank spearheads driven back 100 miles from their deepest concentrations.

A war bulletin from "the Fuehrer's headquarters" conceded that Soviet troops were pressing "relief attacks" to rescue trapped forces east of Smolensk, but it asserted that the Red counter-offensive was being crushed with severe losses.

ASKS PRICE CEILING

Washington, July 30—(AP)—President Roosevelt, asserting inflationary price increases were threatening to "undermine our defense efforts" asked Congress today to authorize him to establish ceilings for prices and rents.

"We face inflation, unless we act decisively and without delay," he said.

The President also requested in a special message authority to purchase materials and commodities when necessary to assure price stability and to "deal more extensively with excesses in the field of installment credit."

INFANT'S RITES HELD

Burial at Brownstown For Son of William Mark.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 o'clock this morning at Fairview Cemetery in Brownstown for Jerry Raymond Mark, ten-day-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Mark, of Brownstown. The Rev. E. E. Pedicord, of Brownstown, was in charge.

The infant, which was born prematurely and had been ill since birth, died at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Schneck Memorial Hospital where it had been receiving treatment.

The baby was born on July 17, 1941, in Seymour, the son of William M. and Velma Agnes Norman Mark, both of whom survive. In addition to the parents, a brother, Farvell Marshall Mark, at home, also survives.

FARMERS WILL PICNIC HERE

Johnson County Group Will Hold Outing Wednesday.

The Progressive Farmers of Johnson County will hold a picnic in Seymour Wednesday, it was learned today. Decision to hold the outing here was made after officials of that organization made inquiry as to the relative facilities offered by Seymour and other surrounding communities.

After the facilities by Seymour were explained in a letter to the organization by Mayor Stanley A. Switzer, the group decided to hold its outing here. The members will picnic at Shields Park and in the afternoon will be conducted through some of Seymour's factories. Approximately thirty will be in the party.

PAVING ON ROAD 31 BY PASS IS MOVING AHEAD

Paving of the new Road 31 by-pass, north and east of Columbus, is progressing and the concrete work has reached a point approximately one mile from the Road 7 intersection.

A run-around has been in use at the Road 7 and 31 junction the past few days.

The 7-31 intersection has been paved with concrete.

At the present time the flasher signal at the intersection is being used only to give northbound traffic on Road 31 the red signal. Because of the construction project it has been necessary to place the light on 31, south from the junction, and the Road 7 traffic is not getting the caution light.

Brooks Darah, maintenance superintendent on the Columbus highway sub-district, stated that when the by-pass is completed and opened to traffic a 4-way traffic signal would be used at the 7 and 31 junction.

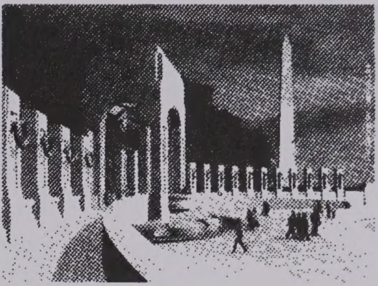
They are members of the Zion Evangelical United Church of Christ.

Please give a warm welcome to these new Villagers!

WWII Veterans may add their name to the 'Registry of Remembrance'



Americans who served in World War II can now join the roll call of the millions of names expected to eventually be cataloged as a part of the National World War II Memorial in Washington, DC.

The Registry of Remembrance is an addendum to the newly dedicated WWII Memorial, and is to serve as a collection of names of those who served around the world and at home.

The WWII Memorial is located on the Mall between the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument, at the east end of the Reflecting Pond. It honors all World War II service men and women who served in our Nation's military, including all of the service branches and the Merchant Marine.

In addition, the Memorial pays tribute to all Americans who sacrificed in defense of the nation, and you may include anyone's name who served the war effort abroad or at home.

It is hoped that the Memorial and the Registry will reach future generations with the story of a nation united in the cause of freedom and the suppression of tyranny.

If you served in the war, or were a part of its support services abroad or at home, you can add your name to the Registry by contacting the web site www.wwiimemorial.com, or by calling 1-800-639-4WW2.

The National Registry of Remembrances will become part of the permanent display, recognizing individually the more than 16 million who served in uniform during the war. The National World War II Memorial was dedicated in the Spring of 2004 to honor the veterans, of whom a full 12 million will not have lived to see the ceremony.

A WRV Tradition

The Village Bazaar opens for business

It is time again for Westside Retirement Village to open its doors for the traditional holiday bazaar.

We will transform the front lobby for two days of shopping. The selection is great, and you are bound to find a treasure or two amid the "merchant stalls."

The bazaar is open Friday and Saturday, November 19-20.

Friday, 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM will be a Cake and Baked Goods Sale. On Saturday, the merchandise changes a bit. We will have a Cake and Baked Goods Sale, plus a Rummage Sale.

You may also wish to enjoy Horse and Buggy Rides from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM on Saturday to help get you in the spirit. A cash donation of $1.00 is suggested.

All proceeds from the event will benefit the Resident Fund. See you there!

Welcome!

The World War II Memorial honors the 16 million who served in the armed forces of the U.S., the more than 400,000 who died, and all who supported the war effort from home. Symbolic of the defining event of the 20th Century, the memorial is a monument to the spirit, sacrifice, and commitment of the American people. The Second World War is the only 20th Century event commemorated on the National Mall's central axis.

Visiting the Memorial

The memorial opened to the public on April 29, 2004 and was dedicated one month later on May 29. It is located on 17th Street, between Constitution and Independence Avenues, and is flanked by the Washington Monument to the east and the Lincoln Memorial to the west. The memorial is now operated by the National Park Service and is open to visitors 24 hours a day, seven days a week. For more information about visiting the memorial, accessibility, parking, directions, special events and other details, please visit the National Park Service Web site at www.nps.gov/nwwm or call the Park Service at (202) 619-7222.

Facts

[Introduction] [Fact Sheets][Newsletters]

Introduction

Authorization

President Clinton signed Public Law 103-32 on May 25, 1993, authorizing the American Battle Monuments Commission (ABMC) to establish a World War II Memorial in Washington, D.C., or its environs. It is the first national memorial dedicated to all who served during World War II and acknowledging the commitment and achievement of the entire nation.

Purpose

The memorial honors the 16 million who served in the armed forces of the U.S. during World War II, the more than 400,000 who died, and the millions who supported the war effort from home. Symbolic of the defining event of the 20th Century, the memorial is a monument to the spirit, sacrifice, and commitment of the American people to the common defense of the nation and to the broader causes of peace and freedom from tyranny throughout the world. It will inspire future generations of Americans, deepening their appreciation of what the World War II generation accomplished in securing freedom and democracy. Above all, the memorial stands as an important symbol of American national unity, a timeless reminder of the moral strength and awesome power that can flow when a free people are at once united and bonded together in a common and just cause.

Site

The first step in establishing the memorial was the selection of an appropriate site. Congress provided legislative authority for siting the memorial in the prime area of the national capital, known as Area I, which includes the National Mall. The National Park Service, the Commission of Fine Arts, and the National Capital Planning Commission approved selection of the Rainbow Pool site at the east end of the Reflecting Pool between the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument. President Clinton dedicated the memorial site during a formal ceremony on Veterans Day 1995.

Design

ABMC engaged the General Services Administration's (GSA) Public Buildings Service to act as its agent to manage the memorial project. The design submitted by Friedrich St.Florian, an architect based in Providence, R.I., was selected as one of six semi-finalists in an open, national competition. Leo A Daly, an international architecture firm, assembled the winning team with St.Florian as the design architect. The team also included George E. Hartman of Hartman-Cox Architects, landscape architect Oehme van Sweden & Associates, sculptor Ray Kaskey, and stone carver and letterer Nick Benson. St.Florian's memorial design concept was approved by the Commission of Fine Arts and the National Capital Planning Commission in the summer of 1998. The commissions approved the preliminary design in 1999, the final architectural design and several ancillary elements in 2000, granite selections in 2001, and sculpture and inscriptions in 2002 and 2003.

Fund-raising Campaign

The memorial was funded primarily by private contributions. The fund-raising campaign was led by National Chairman Senator Bob Dole and National Co-Chairman Frederick W. Smith.

Senator Dole, a World War II veteran seriously wounded on the battlefield and twice decorated with the Bronze Star and Purple Heart, was the Republican nominee for president in 1996 and the longest-serving Republican Leader in the U.S. Senate.

Frederick W. Smith is chairman, president and chief executive officer of FedEx Corporation, a global transportation and logistics holding company. He is a graduate of Yale and a former U.S. Marine Corps officer, and serves on the boards of various transport, industry and civic organizations.

The memorial received more than $195 million in cash and pledges. This total includes $16 million provided by the federal government.

Timeline

Construction began in September 2001. The memorial opened to the public on April 29, 2004, and was dedicated on Saturday, May 29, 2004.

ABMC

The American Battle Monuments Commission is an independent, executive branch agency with 11 commissioners and a secretary appointed by the president. The ABMC administers, operates and maintains 24 permanent U.S. military cemeteries and 25 memorial structures in 15 countries around the world. The commission is also responsible for the establishment of other memorials in the U.S. as directed by Congress.

Pearl Harbor survivor David Briner

By Kenan Heise

David F. Briner, 72, a retired hospital corpsman in the Navy, was a survivor of the Dec. 7, 1941, attack on Pearl Harbor. He was past president of Illinois Chapter One and a past director of the 5th District of the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association.

A resident of Waukegan, he died Tuesday at St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan.

"He cared about people and liked to make them happy," his wife, Virginia, said. "He thought of others rather than of himself. He loved his Navy days."

A native of Seymour, Ind., he joined the Navy in June, 1941. He was assigned as a hospital corpsman at Pearl Harbor. Sunday, Dec. 7, 1941 was his first liberty in Hawaii.

"At first they thought the strange sounds of planes and shooting were part of naval maneuvers," his wife said. "Then, someone told him it was a surprise attack by the Japanese. He had to run for cover from tree to tree to reach the hospital. He was later sent out by the hospital to . . . bring in the wounded and the bodies of the dead. It was not something he talked about until 25 years later when he spoke to a class on Guam about Pearl Harbor as part of recent history. The survivors share a bond and have their own way of speaking about it."

After the attack, Mr. Briner was assigned to the hospital ship Solace, which operated in the South Pacific.

He stayed in the Navy after the war, becoming a chief hospital corpsman. He served on Mare Island in California, on Guam and in Newport, R.I., before retiring in 1961. He later held an administrative position with the Veterans Administration in North Chicago.

His wife is his only immediate survivor.

Visitation will be from 6 to 9 p.m. Thursday in the Peterson Funeral Home, 408 N. Sheridan Rd., Waukegan. Services will be held there Friday at 11 a.m.

Restaurant exec in Mexico

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The founder of a group of popular Mexican tourist restaurants and four other people died in a plane crash in the remote mountains of Jalisco state, officials said.

Carlos Anderson, 55, board chairman of Grupo Anderson's, died Sunday when his rented plane crashed during bad weather 15 minutes after takeoff from San Sebastian, about 400 miles northwest of Mexico City, officials said.

Mr. Anderson's friend Beatriz Duran, 55, her two children, ages 4 and 8, and their nanny were killed.

Pilot Fortunato Valenzuela, 37, survived. He said the plane was en route to Puerto Vallarta.

The Anderson group runs 55 restaurants in Mexico, two in California, two in Brazil and one in Spain. Most bear some version of the name "Carlos'n Charlie's."

Mr. Anderson is survived by seven children and is separated from his second wife, a Grupo Anderson's spokesman said.

Herman S. Silver

Herman S. Silver, 80, of the Near North Side, a retired certified public accountant and former partner of an accounting firm, died Tuesday in Northwestern Memorial Hospital. Mr. Silver was founder of Silver Millman and Co., Certified Public Accountants, which started in 1940. It merged with the accounting firm of Touche-Ross in 1968. He was a partner with the firm until he retired in 1975. He graduated from Northwestern University where he received a certified public accounting degree in 1935. He was a former board member of the Central Synagogue, Lake Shore Drive Synagogue and West Suburban Temple Har Zion. He is survived by his wife, Sandra; two daughters, Helen Magid and Diane Wooten; a son, Lawrence; three grandchildren; a sister; and a brother. Services will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday in Weinstein Brothers Devon Chapel, 1300 W. Devon Ave.

William M. O'Shea

William M. O'Shea, 87, the founder of the Brewers Association of America, died Monday in his Near North Side home. Mr. O'Shea, an attorney, founded the trade association for beer manufacturers in 1943. Mr. O'Shea retired in 1986. He is survived by two sons; Joseph and Rev. William J.; and a daughter, Mary Ellen. Visitation will be held from 2 to 9 p.m. Thursday in the Kenny Brothers Funeral Home, 3600 W. 95th St., Evergreen Park. Mass will be said at 10:30 a.m. Friday in Most Holy Redeemer Catholic Church, 9525 S. Lawndale Ave., Evergreen Park.

Dr. Alfred Wolfarth

Dr. Alfred Wolfarth, 90, a physician in the northwest suburbs for 38 years, died Sept. 19 in Wheatland, Wis. He moved to Elmhurst in 1916 and graduated from Loyola University Medical School. He began his practice in 1927 in Mt. Prospect, and was active in Mt. Prospect's former volunteer fire department for 25 years. Dr. Wolfarth retired in 1965. He is survived by two sons, Robert and Charles; a daughter, Eleanor Langhenry; a brother; 13 grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren. Services were private.

POTOKER

Florence R. Potoker, nee Spiesel, beloved wife of Harold; loving mother of Robert (Phyllis) Potoker, Steven (Tammy) Potoker and Michael Potoker; dear grandmother of Rafael, Gilad, Gai and Gal. Subject: Family Group Sheets for Amanda

John,

Here are the group sheets for Amanda's three marriages. She lost 5 children--but was a dear mother to the four that lived plus the two step daughters from James' first marriage according to my mother.

By the way, I've seen James' middle name both Lewis and Louis. Amanda spelled it Louis which is what I've gone with.

Be sure to bring any references you have to John Briner as I think it is possible she was married to a John Briner between James Briner and Thomas White. I show her as a widow for 17 or 18 years.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Please Note:

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

Mavis A. Welpott

JAN. 22, 1918 — APRIL 8, 2004

ELLETTSVILLE — Mavis A. Welpott, of Ellettsville, died Thursday at Bloomington Hospital.

Born Jan. 22, 1918, in Greene County, she was the daughter of Roy Burr Smith and Carrie (Dyar) Smith.

She was a secretary at the Elm Heights School and was employed at Hall of Cards at the Crosstown Shopping Center.

She was a 1940 graduate of Indiana University, and a member of Alpha Omicron Pi and the First Christian Church.

She loved flowers, family dinners, joining college friends at annual picnics and the company of neighbors and caregivers.

Survivors include one son, Warren R. Welpott and his wife Julie of Pendleton, Ind.; two daughters, Carol L. Isaacs and her husband Roger and Jean Ann Hayes and her husband Curt, both of Bloomington; seven grandchildren, Travis Welpott, Toby Welpott, Antony Isaacs, Laura (Isaacs) Cashill, Adam Hayes, Jordan Hayes and Lauren Hayes; and four great-grandchildren, Cole Isaacs, Keegan Cashill, Jessa Welpott and Elisabeth Welpott.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Forrest E. Welpott.

Services will be 3 p.m. today at the First Christian Church with the Rev. Helen Enari officiating. Burial will follow at Rose Hill Cemetery.

Friends may call one hour prior to services at the church.

Memorial contributions may be made to the First Christian Church or the Bloomington Hospital Foundation.

Allen Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. †

DeStefano

Bernie DeStefano, 38, faces a prison sentence of up to 189 years for a host of felony convictions, including rape, criminal deviate conduct and confinement — all while armed with a deadly weapon.

Late Thursday night, after finding him guilty of raping a female relative, a Monroe Circuit Court jury also found him to be a habitual offender and to be a serious violent offender in possession of a firearm. He also could be forced to serve the remaining years of previous prison sentences that had been suspended to probation.

DeStefano's sentencing hearing is set for 1:30 p.m. May 6, in Judge Marc Kellams' court.

Elks help churches with Easter egg hunts

Lodge buys dozens of eggs for children's events this weekend

By Nicole Berner
H-T Staff Writer

When two churches sought a little Easter help from the Independent Benevolent Protective Order of the Elks of the World, the group was quick to respond.

Second Baptist Church, on North Rogers Street, and Cherry Hill Christian Center Church, on East 16th Street, requested dozens of eggs for

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Please Note:

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

No. 71L Bright's ARISTOCRAT LINE

God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
Undying love. . . .

Complaint For Divorce.

The plaintiff in the above entitled cause of action complains of the defendant and for cause of complaint alleges:

1.

That the plaintiff is now and for more than one year last past immediately prior to the filing of this complaint has been a bona fide resident of the State of Indiana: That she is now and for more than six months last past next before the filing hereof has resided in the County of Jackson Therein: That such residence during the entire aforesaid period was had at what is known as 517 Hoosier Street, North Vernon, Indiana and at 116 1/2 E. Second Street, Seymour, Indiana: That she is by occupation a waitress.

That the plaintiff and the defendant are husband and wife and were duly married at Lawrenceburg, Indiana on the 31st day of March 1934: That they lived and cohabited together as husband and wife until the 8th day of October 1943, when they separated and have not since lived or cohabited together as husband and wife:

3.

That the defendant has been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment of this plaintiff, in this, to wit: That on the 8th day of October 1943, without fault on the part of the plaintiff and without any reason so to do the defendant called her vile and indecent names, to numerous and indecent to mention and told her that he never did love her, and didnt love her, that he was in love with another women and that he didnt want to live with her any more. That on said day he falsely accused her of associations with other men: That such action on part of the defendant towards this plaintiff indicates a settled aversion against plaintiff and has made and rendered their living together as husband and wife unbearable.

Wherefore: Plaintiff prays judgment for an absolute divorce from the defendant, for the costs of this action and for all other relief to which she may appear entitled.

George H. Gossman
Attorney for Plaintiff.

State Of Indiana
SS:
County Of Jackson

Affiant Amanda Pearl Green, having been first duly sworn upon her oath states: That she is the plaintiff in the foregoing complaint for a divorce and that all the matters and things set forth in the foregoing complaint are true in substance and in fact.

Amanda Pearl Green
Affiant.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by Amanda Pearl Green, this the 118th day of September 1944.

Georg H. Gossman

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Please Note:

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

History & History Related Items

Grafton history:

One of the more interesting roles of Grafton was its placement in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The main line passed through Grafton and many were employed by the band. My father worked in the shops and my great grandfather was a railroad surgeon.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Mass
Immaculate Conception Church
January 12, 2005
at 12:00 Noon

May the road rise up to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face.
May the rain fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again, may God hold
You in the palm of His hand. Amen.

John,

Here is a picture of David Francis and Orville. Orville was your step-father, right?

One of the boys was called Bud. What was his real name?

Bob

ETS FOR TED

Jack Dempsey / Associated Press

Denver: United Airlines began selling tickets Tuesday on its low-fare carrier Ted, a venture executives said will play a crucial role in the future of the bankrupt company. Ted, which will start flying in February, will be based at Denver International Airport, also the home of discount carrier Frontier. United's parent, UAL Corp., hopes Ted will be competitive with low-cost carriers that are snatching customers from big airlines.

and state inspectors pay visit to Winona amid complaints

By Jeff Swiatek
jeff.swiatek@indystar.com

Inspectors from the state Department of Health and a national hospital accrediting group descended on Winona Memorial Hospital this week and last Friday to look into complaints about patient care and medical leadership at the Near-Northside hospital.

The inspections come a month after the doctors who made up the hospital's executive medical committee resigned their posts, citing concerns about underfunding and patient safety.

The visits are among several recent developments at Winona that indicate the for-profit community hospital, owned since last year by Texas-based Leland Medical Centers, continues to struggle with its turnaround plan for the facility. In the past several years, Winona has faced operating losses, a falloff in business and doctor defections.

The inspections came after "multiple physicians have complained" about patient care which accredits hospitals nationally using quality standards, said Dr. Robert Mehl, a radiologist and past president of the hospital's medical staff.

Hospital Chief Executive Pat Feyen said the joint commission's inspector told him that preliminary findings showed "no non-compliance issues related to patient care" at the hospital.

"Allegations regarding patient care being affected are unfounded," Feyen said. "That's an important message, from our perspective, to get across."

A physician inspector from the joint commission, which is based near Chicago, inspected Winona on Friday. The commission was looking into a complaint about hospital leadership and medical staff, spokeswoman Janet McIntyre said. Results should be available in about a month, she said.

Responding to complaints, state inspectors showed up for an unannounced inspection Monday and were still in the hospital on Tuesday, said Margaret Joseph, a spokeswoman for the health department. Results of the inspection won't be released publicly until 13 days after they are mailed to the hospital, she said.

Not passing such inspections could lead to a loss of accreditation for a hospital, which could prevent it from caring for elderly and poor patients covered by federal Medicare and Medicare. Or a hospital could be put on probation, ordered to make expensive improvements to programs, or even stripped of its state license to operate.

Among other developments at Winona:

■ The hospital's director of nursing, Patty Heffner, departed last week and the nurse in charge of infection control and nurse education submitted her resignation this week, said Mehl, the radiologist. He said the departures involved concerns over patient care. Feyen said Heffner left for personal reasons not involving patient care. She couldn't be reached for comment.

■ The daily count of hospitalized patients remains at the same low levels as last year, averaging 38 patients a day so far this month and 42 last month. That's far below the hospital's capacity of 169 licensed beds.

Texas-based Leland Medical Centers last month announced a refinancing that was supposed to pay off the balance of the purchase price of Winona and provide fresh cash to reinvest in hospital improvements.

Feyen said a coming remodeling of a hospital floor containing 44 beds, plus program improvements, should help boost business.

■ Several doctors at the hospital say they continue to encounter cases where the hospital has run out of supplies used to care for patients. "It's getting to the point we are really concerned about patient care," said Dr. Ramon Dunkin, a pulmonary and critical care doctor who has practiced at Winona for about 40 years. Dunkin said the shortages have occurred because Winona hasn't paid some suppliers and they have cut off deliveries.

Feyen said relations with suppliers have "improved" and that "we're getting access to supplies we need on a daily basis."

■ The hospital's nine-member executive medical committee, which governs medical policies at the hospital, remains disbanded because doctors don't have confidence in the hospital administration, said Mehl. "People are very frustrated not having the funding or supplies needed to provide the kind of care we are used to providing and want to provide," he said.

Feyen said he hopes to work with doctors to reappoint the committee in the next 10 days.

■ The hospital last week sold the nearby Stutz Mansion, which formerly was leased to a medical practice, to The Children's Museum for an undisclosed price. The hospital also donated two smaller adjacent parcels to the museum and pledged a yearly donation to the museum. The museum will lease the three-story mansion to an office tenant and plans to use the acquired parking lots for overflow parking for the museum, said Jeff H. Patchen, museum president.

The mansion no longer was needed by the hospital and its sale provides Winona with cash to reinvest in the hospital, Feyen said.

Leland last month announced a refinancing that was supposed to pay off the balance of the purchase price of Winona and provide fresh cash to reinvest in hospital improvements.

Leland took over the hospital from Tenet Health Systems, another Texas operator of for-profit hospitals. Under Tenet's ownership during the 1990s, Winona suffered from a lack of reinvestment and growing disenchantment among doctors, said Keith King, who was chief operating officer of Winona from 1993 to 1998, when he left for health reasons.

Under King, Winona built up its bariatric weight-loss program, its cardiology line and a network of private-practice physicians. Key bariatric physicians and staff left to a competing hospital in 1998, prompting a lawsuit against them by Winona.

The cardiology program, which included two catheterization labs for heart patients, has seen a slowdown in business in recent months to about one catheterization a week or less, not enough to keep a strong cardiology program going, said Dr. Jack H. Hall, a cardiologist who helped to build the program in the 1990s.

"It was tough to gain the support (from Leland) we needed to sustain it (the cardiology program)," he said. "Management needs to make significant adjustments and reinvest in the hospital."

Feyen said cardiology is a business line that "we hope to grow."

Edmund Able, director of health care services at Blue & Co., an Indianapolis health care consulting firm, said Winona's patient base is older and poorer than most competing hospitals, forcing Winona to rely more heavily on federal Medicare and Medicaid health programs, which reimburse hospitals for care at rates lower than private insurance.

As Winona cut back on programs and purchases of new technology, "a number of medical staff . . . took off elsewhere," Able said.

Winona lost $3.48 million on patient revenues of $73 million in 2000, the last year for which it has submitted a financial report to the state Department of Health. The hospital said it didn't submit a report for 2001 because of the change in ownership, health department spokeswoman Jennifer Dunlap said. The 2002 report was due in May and the health department has sent Winona a "reminder" that it's late in filing that report, Dunlap said.

DR. LOREN W. AND KATHRYN C. KAMMAN NOBLITT

The marriage of Loren W. and Kathryn C. Kamman in 1949 joined the descendants of two early pioneer families with Jackson County ties. The paternal great-great grandfather, an itinerant Baptist minister of Washington County in 1821, performed the marriage of the first couple known to have eloped from Brownstown. The maternal great-great grandfather, born at Hitler in the province of Hannover, was one of four young men selected by he home parish to form a vanguard of German-speaking Lutheran immigrants who were destined o settle south of Brownstown in 1827.

Dr. Loren W. and Kathryn C. Noblitt

Although Loren W. Noblitt was born in New Jersey, he moved to Indiana in 1927 when his parents joined the faculty of Indiana Central College. Maturing in Ogilville, he completed high school in Columbus and was employed by Arvin Industries in Seymour before enlisting in the Air Force during World War II. Upon discharge, he began his undergraduate studies leading to a teaching credential. When he received the B.S. degree (cum laude) in 1949, he and his bride who graduated from Brownstown High School, moved to New Mexico. They began their married lives while he launched his career in public education, which would include service as a teacher, coach and administrator. Continuing his own education, he was eventually awarded multiple doctoral degrees. When he retired as chief executive officer of the Visalia School District, he and his wife elected to return to Brownstown.

While teaching at Lawrenceville, IL, Loren and Kathryn Noblitt became parents of two daughters. Carolyn Joyce (1954) was later stricken with cancer and died when she was 13 years old. Sandra ayne (1956) moved with her parents when they elocated to Whittier, CA. A third daughter named Kathleen Jo was adopted as an infant in 1968 while he family lived in La Habra, CA.

After the family moved to Visalia, Sandra was married to Robert K. McKinney. Following the wedding, she entered Fresno Pacific College where he received her B.S. degree (summa cum laude) in lementary education. Some time later, Robert graduated from Fresno State University and both are now employed as public school teachers. Making their home in Visalia, they have since become parents of two children: Mark Robert (1986) and Lisa Michelle (1990).

Kathleen, the youngest daughter of Loren and Kathryn Noblitt, entered Brownstown High School in 1981. Involved in many student activities, she became editor of her class yearbook, was named first runner-up to the Jackson County Fair Queen and graduated (valedictorian) of her class. Kathleen was the only National Merit Scholar of Jackson County in 1985. She completed the first two years of college at the University of Indianapolis before being married to Thomas C. Collins, also a student. The newlywed couple moved to Norfolk, VA where he would complete his naval enlistment. In 1989, Kathleen was graduated (summa cum laude) from Norfolk State University with a B.S. in chemistry. The following year Petty Officer 2nd Class Thomas C. Collins completed the course work in criminology. He was awarded the B.S. degree from St. Leo College at its campus located at Langley Field, VA.

NOLTING FAMILY

Johann Heinrick Nolting, born on April 6, 1924, married Suzanna Klein in Germany and immigrated to the United States by way of New Orleans. They settled in Sauers community where Johan was a Lutheran School teacher. They were the parents of five children, one of whom was Charles who married Agnes Ahlbrand. Four children were born to this union. Three of the children died in infancy, however, Harvard, their third child, was a strong and healthy baby.

Harvard graduated from Valparaiso University and upon graduation joined his father in the grocery business at Tipton and East Sts. in Seymour. He opened the first self service meat counter in southern Indiana. In 1937 Harvard married Marguerite Newkirk. To this union were born four children, three sons and a daughter. The oldest, Thomas married Mary Lou Horstman of Brownstown. Harvard Jr., married Janet Bobb of Seymour, Phyllis married Col. John Judd from Seymour. John, named after his great grandfather, married Helen Layton of Seymour.

Thomas, Harvard Jr. (Bill), and John are affiliated with the family food business. Thomas has four children: Thomas Jr. lives in Tampa, FL; Mark lives in Miamisburg, OH. Nancy lives in Phoenix, AZ and Cindy lives in Tucson, AZ. Bill has two children. Jeffrey lives in Thornton, CO and Suzanne named after her great-grandmother, lives on Hilton Head Island, SC.

Phyllis has two children. Kristen and Laurie both are students at the University of Florida. John has two children. Mary Marguerite and Sarah Elizabeth who reside in Brownstown with their parents. Jeffrey has one son Charles William named after his great-grandfather. Submitted by: Nolting's Foods Inc.

NOWLING

Samuel David Nowling was born Feb. 13, 1886 in Washington County, IN. He was the youngest child of Andrew A. Nowling and Malissa S. Walker to live to adulthood. He had nine older siblings from his parent's union and another four brothers and sisters from his father's previous marriage. His mother died Aug. 14, 1889 when Samuel was only three and one-half years old. His father moved the family to Brownstown. Andrew died in Brownstown on Feb. 9, 1894, just four days short of Samuel's eighth birthday. Samuel moved back to Washington County to live with his married sister Bertha,

Highlands Hammock State Park hosts its volunteers

'A gift of yourself'

By LARRY LEVEY
News-Sun correspondent

SEBRING – "You've given a present of yourself — and that's unbeatable."

So said Highlands Hammock State Park ranger and volunteer coordinator Bill Brannen, talking to the more than 60 park volunteers at Thursday's Volunteer Appreciation Dinner held at the park's rec hall. Volunteers included those who winter at the park and provide services, along with local residents who regularly volunteer their time and efforts.

Brannen's words were echoed by park manager Peter Anderson, who said, "You don't know how much we appreciate what you do for us, especially now when our staffing is so low."

And even during the dinner, the volunteers kept on giving, with Kate Filer, from Louisville, Ky., and Jane Van Gorden, from Hell, Mich., representing 10 couples "who have been coming to the park for a lot of years," giving Anderson a check for $250 for one of the newly installed windows in the rec hall.

Recognized for their ongoing help in the park's Hammock Inn by inn operators Shawn Paul and Darrell Graves were Jerry and Sue Myers of Indianapolis, Ind. He also sings his "Elvis Presley" songs in the inn every Wednesday.

The volunteers were served a plate of barbecue chicken and pork and all the trimmings, even a dish of banana pudding, by park staff. Volunteer appreciation awards will be given out later this year, said Brannen.

Jerry Myers, a volunteer at Highlands Hammock State Park, sings 'Elvis' Wednesdays at the Hammock Inn from 1-3 p.m. Jerry, his wife and some 60 other park volunteers were honored with an Appreciation Dinner Thursday evening.

PARK RANGER

The neat thing about camping in our state parks is that you never know just what you'll see or who you'll meet. You can almost always be guaranteed to have an unusual experience, neat wildlife sighting or a meeting with someone from another continent.

This time of year, we are so very busy, and our campgrounds are bustling with activity. The folks next to you might be right here from Seb[illegible] or from as far away as Ger[illegible]y. With all these travelers, who knows whom you'll meet. Why you might even see Elvis!

That's right, you can probably find him busy cleaning the restrooms or helping some fellow camper get situated. What's that you say? Elvis is no longer alive? Why sure he is, he's registered right on campsite 104. Well, you may not believe it, until of course, you hear him sing around the campfire one of these balmy evenings.

Our Elvis actually goes by the name of Jerry Myers and he hails from Indianapolis. Jerry's open warmth and magnetic personality draws everybody to him. He's one of those guys that become a friend right after you meet him. Now Jerry never planned to be known as Elvis, and he shares that he was already singing when Elvis first became popular.

Jerry had been singing all his life, mostly for solos at school and church functions. He tells the story of a man that heard him singing wh[illegible]e was about 15 years old. The man asked him to play guitar too, and Jerry told him that he didn't know how to play one. The man gave him one and told him to keep it and learn how to play it, then to come back and sing him some songs. Jerry did just that, and the man then bought him a guitar, which cost around $30 at that time.

Well, back in the 1950s folks started to tell him that he sounded "just like Elvis." Jerry said that when he finally heard Elvis, he didn't think he sounded anything at all like him. But in 1958, at a school talent show, Jerry sang some Elvis tunes and from that point on, he was always known as "Elvis."

Now lest you think that he's some guy in a sparkly suit and fake sideburns, Jerry reminds that he doesn't impersonate or sing just Elvis tunes. He also likes to entertain folks with other music, such as songs from Marty Robins, Gordon Lightfoot and Eddie Rabbitt. Jerry, who feels blessed by his gift of song, shares that he hopes to bless others with his music. His favorite quote is, "Your life is a gift from God, what you make of it is your gift to God." Jerry always strives to "walk his talk," and when he sings a beloved hymn, it is truly felt.

Jerry and his wife, Sue, came to Highlands Hammock in 1995 to visit as campers. Jerry reminds us that he loves being around people and enjoys lifting their spirits with his music. He was asked to sing at a campfire gathering one evening and then wound up singing for three nights in a row. At that point, it was obvious that whenever he started to sing, people began to gather. Jerry and Sue were asked to return and sing again during our next camping season. Since then, he has been coming every year and entertaining our campers with his relaxing music.

Both he and Sue also help out the park in other ways, too. They have hosted our camper's potluck suppers, game nights and morning gatherings. They both also do restroom duty as well. You might even hear him singing as he cleans the showers!

Jerry says that he often sings nearly every night of the week because of continued requests from our campers. It is not unusual to have more than 150 people relaxing near the fire listening to him play and sing. Jerry says he hopes his music helps to evoke fond memories for the many folks who come to hear him sing.

From the many complimentary notes we receive, it is obvious that his singing becomes a fond memory of their Real Florida experience. Perhaps you'd like to experience this too? Come visit us for a camping trip and listen to Jerry's musi around the crackling fire. Campsit reservations are available by callin 1-800-326-3521.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that set of discs. Discs may be purchased individually or as sets.

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that set of discs. Discs may be purchased individually or as sets.

[1] The son John, mentioned in the will of James Baker, was born in Woodford County, Kentucky, near Versailles, October 12, 1812. His parents brought him to Indiana in 1815. He became a prominent lawyer and lived in Bedford, Indiana, many years; moved to Vincennes in 1859, and later to Washington, Indiana. His father, James Baker, was born in Orange County, Virginia, in 1785, moved to Kentucky in 1805 and came to Orange County, Indiana, in 1815, as stated above, where he died in 1816. John Baker married Sarah Delard, daughter of John Delard, who was born in Mercer County, Kentucky, in 1798. His father, Ettienne Delard, of South Carolina, born in 1767, was a Revolutionary soldier and of Huguenot descent as stated in Goodspeed's History of Knox and Davies Counties, Indiana (1886, pp. 192, 310). Polly Baker, wife of James, is said to have been a Davis, sister of Larkin Davis, who entered land in the north part of Paoli Township, and is buried there. They were children of Thomas Davis, a Revolutionary soldier. Mrs. Alleyna Brown McNabb, of the John Wallace Chapter, D.A.R., of Bedford, Indiana, is a member on the record of Thomas Davis. James Baker, Jr., the second son, mentioned in the will, was born in Woodford County, Kentucky, March 29, 1814; married Sarah Burgess in 1834 according to the account in Goodspeed's History of Lawrence, Orange and Washington Counties, Indiana (1884, p. 662). Jane (Jinny) Baker, born in 1816, married Dr. James Dillard.

[2] Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy (1936, I, p. 436) gives the record of the Holliday family, with dates, including the name and dates of another son, William. Robert Holliday was the son of Henry and Mary Holliday (p. 399 of last reference in note 1). Robert and Hannah Holliday were born in Chester County, Pennsylvania. Hannah was the daughter of John and Mary Newlin Holliday.

[3] Miss Mabel Claxton, of French Lick, Indiana, has the Revolutionary record of Nathan Wells. He is said to be buried at Lick Creek Quaker Cemetery, in Orange County, but the grave is not marked. Miss Claxton has, also, the Revolutionary record of Joseph Wells, from North Carolina.

[4] Joseph W. Doak was the great grandfather of N. B. Navity, of French Lick, Indiana. His wife was Mary (Polly) Irvin, daughter of Samuel Irvin, Revolutionary soldier. Robert Doak was a son. A daughter, Jane Doak, married Samuel Lynd, and another daughter, Martha, married Isaac Potter. There is a Doak family history, but we do not have this volume.

[1] The son John, mentioned in the will of James Baker, was born in Woodford County, Kentucky, near Versailles, October 12, 1812. His parents brought him to Indiana in 1815. He became a prominent lawyer and lived in Bedford, Indiana, many years; moved to Vincennes in 1859, and later to Washington, Indiana. His father, James Baker, was born in Orange County, Virginia, in 1785, moved to Kentucky in 1805 and came to Orange County, Indiana, in 1815, as stated above, where he died in 1816. John Baker married Sarah Delard, daughter of John Delard, who was born in Mercer County, Kentucky, in 1798. His father, Ettienne Delard, of South Carolina, born in 1767, was a Revolutionary soldier and of Huguenot descent as stated in Goodspeed's History of Knox and Davies Counties, Indiana (1886, pp. 192, 310). Polly Baker, wife of James, is said to have been a Davis, sister of Larkin Davis, who entered land in the north part of Paoli Township, and is buried there. They were children of Thomas Davis, a Revolutionary soldier. Mrs. Alleyna Brown McNabb, of the John Wallace Chapter, D.A.R., of Bedford, Indiana, is a member on the record of Thomas Davis. James Baker, Jr., the second son, mentioned in the will, was born in Woodford County, Kentucky, March 29, 1814; married Sarah Burgess in 1834 according to the account in Goodspeed's History of Lawrence, Orange and Washington Counties, Indiana (1884, p. 662). Jane (Jinny) Baker, born in 1816, married Dr. James Dillard.

[2] Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy (1936, I, p. 436) gives the record of the Holliday family, with dates, including the name and dates of another son, William. Robert Holliday was the son of Henry and Mary Holliday (p. 399 of last reference in note 1). Robert and Hannah Holliday were born in Chester County, Pennsylvania. Hannah was the daughter of John and Mary Newlin Holliday.

[3] Miss Mabel Claxton, of French Lick, Indiana, has the Revolutionary record of Nathan Wells. He is said to be buried at Lick Creek Quaker Cemetery, in Orange County, but the grave is not marked. Miss Claxton has, also, the Revolutionary record of Joseph Wells, from North Carolina.

[4] Joseph W. Doak was the great grandfather of N. B. Navity, of French Lick, Indiana. His wife was Mary (Polly) Irvin, daughter of Samuel Irvin, Revolutionary soldier. Robert Doak was a son. A daughter, Jane Doak, married Samuel Lynd, and another daughter, Martha, married Isaac Potter. There is a Doak family history, but we do not have this volume.

William III followed his father and became a funeral director. They established Brill and Son, but upon the death of the elder William, his son went into another line of business.

Virginia, after graduating from Indiana University, followed a business career intermixed with politics and civic affairs, much like her mother who was active in the civic and social affairs of Danville at the time when the town was starting to grow and become conscious of its responsibility as a progressive community. Virginia married Dean O. Boettcher of Chilton, Wisconsin.

William Thomas Brill II died on June 16, 1936. Glenrose Acton Brill died on January 30, 1947.

HARRY R. BRINER FAMILY

Harry Raymond Briner, a resident of Hendricks County for over 50 years, was born in Orange County, Indiana, on September 28, 1892. He is a descendant of pioneer Orange County citizens. One of the pioneers, Jonathan Lindley, came to the Indiana Territory in 1809 from North Carolina. He returned to North Carolina, and in 1811 brought with him 80 settlers, most of them Quakers, to the Indiana wilderness.

Gen. William Henry Harrison passed through Paoli on September 14, 1811, with Captain Spencer's Rangers, the Yellow Jackets, enroute from Corydon to Vincennes and Tippecanoe. General Harrison was an overnight guest of Jonathan Lindley.

Zachariah Lindley, Jonathan's son, joined the army and was wounded at Tippecanoe. These events are related in an article, "Lost River Is Unique," in the October, 1969, issue of Outdoor Indiana.

Other Hendricks County residents who are descendants of Jonathan Lindley are the families of the late John A. Springer of Danville and Charles Lindley of Pittsboro.

Harry R. Briner and his wife, Ora McClain Briner (B. February 19, 1896; D. October 15, 1970) lived on a farm in Washington Township that was acquired by Mrs. Briner's grandfather in 1830. Harry Briner has operated the farm, and for over 30 years opeated a maple sugar camp and sold maple syrup. He is a World War I veteran and worked for automobile companies in Indianapolis in the early years of the auto industry. He is a member of the American Legion, Scottish Rite and Murat Shrine.

Ora Briner's grandfather, Michael McClain, came alone to Indiana in 1830 to look for a new home site. He traded his horse, bridle and saddle for 40 acres in Washington Township, then returned on foot to his family at Lexington, Kentucky.

Michael was born in Virginia and married Jane Palmer in Kentucky. He was a harness maker by trade, having served in his youth as an apprentice. He was the father of 10 children. Two of his sons, Gilbert D. and Bascom S. McClain, and a nephew, John S. McClain, served in the Civil War. His nephew, John McClain, was wounded at the Battle of Stones River, and lost a leg.

Descendants of Michael McClain live in Washington Township on land that includes the original 40 acres.

Ora Briner's great-great-grandfather, Job Osborn, settled in Hendricks County's Mill Creek area in 1826. He was a Quaker from North Carolina. His daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Osborn, told her grandchildren that when she was a young girl living at Mill Creek, there were Indians in the area; they were friendly and would come to the door of her parents, who, at that time, just had a quilt nailed up at the doorway.

Harry R. Biner and the late Mrs. Briner are the parents of two daughters, Betty Briner Shields and Martha Briner Freeman, and the grandparents of Fred Freeman, Susan Freeman Taylor, Carole Ann Freeman Tucker, and Lyndon Shields.

Harry Briner's grandson, Lyndon Shields, and son-in-law, Donald Shields, are descendants of an early settler who came to Clay Township. Donald Shields is a great-great-grandson of James Kendall, who was a pioneer settler in Morgan County and moved in the 1830s to the Mill Creek area.

FRED BRINSON FAMILY

On May 31, 1958, Fred Brinson married Nancy Kelly in Indianapolis. They have two children: Ken, born on December 30, 1959, and Kathy, born on October 27, 1963.

In the spring of 1968, Fred and Nancy Brinson began building a home in Avon, in Hendricks County. They moved into their new home on their 10th wedding anniversary.

Nancy Kelly's family dates back more than 100 years in Hendricks County.

On March 13, 1849, Nancy's great-grandmother, Anne Francis Estes, was born at Belleville. Little is known about her life in Belleville, except that she became the second wife of Isaac Herring in 1882 and they lived in Missouri where their only child, Nancy's grandmother, Cora Herring, was born on June 16, 1884.

While visiting relatives in Indiana, Cora met Harry Irwin. Although she returned to Missouri it wasn't long before Harry convinced her that Indiana should be her home. On October 30, 1907, Cora married Harry and they set up housekeeping on a farm near Columbus in Decatur County.

Cora and Harry Irwin had four children: Francis (B. 1909), Franklin Isaac (B. 1911; D. 1962), Clara (B. 1913) and Helen (B. 1914), mother of Nancy.

In 1936, Helen Irwin married Eugene Clayton Kelly, whom she had known since childhood. They moved to Indianapolis where, in 1940, Nancy was born. Six years later, a sister, Ruth, was born. Three years later, in 1949, Nancy's brother, John, was born.

Fred and Nancy Brinson presently live on Rural Route No. 1, Danville.

HARRY R. BRINER FAMILY

Harry Raymond Briner, a resident of Hendricks County for over 50 years, was born in Orange County, Indiana, on September 28, 1892. He is a descendant of pioneer Orange County citizens. One of the pioneers, Jonathan Lindley, came to the Indiana Territory in 1809 from North Carolina. He returned to North Carolina, and in 1811 brought with him 80 settlers, most of them Quakers, to the Indiana wilderness.

Gen. William Henry Harrison passed through Paoli on September 14, 1811, with Captain Spencer's Rangers, the Yellow Jackets, enroute from Corydon to Vincennes and Tippecanoe. General Harrison was an overnight guest of Jonathan Lindley.

Zachariah Lindley, Jonathan's son, joined the army and was wounded at Tippecanoe. These events are related in an article, "Lost River Is Unique," in the October, 1969, issue of Outdoor Indiana.

Other Hendricks County residents who are descendants of Jonathan Lindley are the families of the late John A. Springer of Danville and Charles Lindley of Pittsboro.

Harry R. Briner and his wife, Ora McClain Briner (B. February 19, 1896; D. October 15, 1970) lived on a farm in Washington Township that was acquired by Mrs. Briner's grandfather in 1830. Harry Briner has operated the farm, and for over 30 years opeated a maple sugar camp and sold maple syrup. He is a World War I veteran and worked for automobile companies in Indianapolis in the early years of the auto industry. He is a member of the American Legion, Scottish Rite and Murat Shrine.

Ora Briner's grandfather, Michael McClain, came alone to Indiana in 1830 to look for a new home site. He traded his horse, bridle and saddle for 40 acres in Washington Township, then returned on foot to his family at Lexington, Kentucky.

Michael was born in Virginia and married Jane Palmer in Kentucky. He was a harness maker by trade, having served in his youth as an apprentice. He was the father of 10 children. Two of his sons, Gilbert D. and Bascom S. McClain, and a nephew, John S. McClain, served in the Civil War. His nephew, John McClain, was wounded at the Battle of Stones River, and lost a leg.

Descendants of Michael McClain live in Washington Township on land that includes the original 40 acres.

Ora Briner's great-great-grandfather, Job Osborn, settled in Hendricks County's Mill Creek area in 1826. He was a Quaker from North Carolina. His daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Osborn, told her grandchildren that when she was a young girl living at Mill Creek, there were Indians in the area; they were friendly and would come to the door of her parents, who, at that time, just had a quilt nailed up at the doorway.

Harry R. Biner and the late Mrs. Briner are the parents of two daughters, Betty Briner Shields and Martha Briner Freeman, and the grandparents of Fred Freeman, Susan Freeman Taylor, Carole Ann Freeman Tucker, and Lyndon Shields.

Harry Briner's grandson, Lyndon Shields, and son-in-law, Donald Shields, are descendants of an early settler who came to Clay Township. Donald Shields is a great-great-grandson of James Kendall, who was a pioneer settler in Morgan County and moved in the 1830s to the Mill Creek area.

Gen. William Henry Harrison passed through Paoli on September 16, 1811, with Captain Spencer's Rangers, the Yellow Jackets, enroute from Corydon to Vincennes and Tippecanoe. General Harrison was an overnight guest of Jonathan Lindley.

Zachariah Lindley, Jonathan's son, joined the army and was wounded at Tippecanoe. These events are related in an article, "Lost River Is Unique" in the October, 1969 issue of Outdoor Indiana.

Other Hendricks County residents who are descendants of Jonathan Lindley are the families of the late John A. Lindley of Danville and Charles Lindley of Pittsboro.

Harry R. Briner and his wife, Ora McClain Briner (B. February 19, 1896; D. October 18, 1970) lived on a farm in Washington Township that was acquired by Mrs. Briner's grandfather in 1830. Harry Briner has operated the farm, and for over 30 years operated a maple sugar camp and sold maple syrup. He is a World War I veteran and worked for automobile companies in Indianapolis in the early years of the auto industry. He is a member of the American Legion, Scottish Rite and Murat Shrine.

Ora Briner's grandfather, Michael McClain, came alone to Indiana in 1830 to look for a new home site. He traded his horse, bridle and saddle for 40 acres in Washington Township, then returned on foot to his family at Lexington, Kentucky.

Michael was born in Virginia and married Jane Pickerel in Kentucky. He was a harness maker by trade, having served in his youth as an apprentice. He was the father of 10 children. Two of his sons, Wilbert O. and Benjamin S. McClain, and a nephew, John T. McClain, served in the Civil War. His nephew, John McClain, was wounded at the Battle of Stones River, and lost a leg.

Descendants of Michael McClain live in Washington Township on land that includes the original 40 acres.

Ora Briner's great-great-grandfather, Job Osborn, settled in Hendricks County's Mill Creek area in 1826. He was a Quaker from North Carolina. His daughter-in-law, Esther Fern Osborn, told her grandchildren that when she was a young girl living at Mill Creek, there were Indians in the area, they were friendly and would come to the door of her parents, who, at one time, had a quilt nailed up at the doorway.

Harry R. Briner and the late Mrs. Briner are the parents of two daughters, Betty Briner Shields and Martha Briner Freeman, and the grandparents of Fred Freeman, Susan Freeman Ryder, Carole Ann Freeman Turpen and Carmen Shields.

Harry Briner's grandson, Lindsay Shields and son-in-law, Donald Shields, are descendants of an early settler who came to Clay Township. Donald Shields is a great-great-grandson of James Kendall, who was a pioneer settler in Morgan County and moved in the 1830s to the Mill Creek area.

His nephew, John McClain, was wounded at the Battle of Stones River, and lost a leg.

Descendants of Michael McClain live in Washington Township on land that includes the original 40 acres.

Ora Briner's great-great-grandfather, Job Osborn, settled in Hendricks County's Mill Creek area in 1826. He was a Quaker from North Carolina. His daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Osborn, told her grandchildren that when she was a young girl living at Mill Creek, there were Indians in the area; they were friendly and would come to the door of her parents, who, at that time, just had a quilt nailed up at the doorway.

Harry R. Biner and the late Mrs. Briner are the parents of two daughters, Betty Briner Shields and Martha Briner Freeman, and the grandparents of Fred Freeman, Susan Freeman Taylor, Carole Ann Freeman Tucker, and Lyndon Shields.

Harry Briner's grandson, Lyndon Shields, and son-in-law, Donald Shields, are descendants of an early settler who came to Clay Township. Donald Shields is a great-great-grandson of James Kendall, who was a pioneer settler in Morgan County and moved in the 1830s to the Mill Creek area.

FRED BRINSON FAMILY

On May 31, 1958, Fred Brinson married Nancy Kelly in Indianapolis. They have two children: Ken, born on December 30, 1959, and Kathy, born on October 27, 1963.

In the spring of 1968, Fred and Nancy Brinson began building a home in Avon, in Hendricks County. They moved into their new home on their 10th wedding anniversary.

Nancy Kelly's family dates back more than 100 years in Hendricks County.

On March 13, 1849, Nancy's great-grandmother, Anne Francis Estes, was born at Belleville. Little is known about her life in Belleville, except that she became the second wife of Isaac Herring in 1882 and they lived in Missouri where their only child, Nancy's grandmother, Cora Herring, was born on June 16, 1884.

While visiting relatives in Indiana, Cora met Harry Irwin. Although she returned to Missouri it wasn't long before Harry convinced her that Indiana should be her home. On October 30, 1907, Cora married Harry and they set up housekeeping on a farm near Columbus in Decatur County.

Cora and Harry Irwin had four children: Francis (B. 1909), Franklin Isaac (B. 1911; D. 1962), Clara (B. 1913) and Helen (B. 1914), mother of Nancy.

In 1936, Helen Irwin married Eugene Clayton Kelly, whom she had known since childhood. They moved to Indianapolis where, in 1940, Nancy was born. Six years later, a sister, Ruth, was born. Three years later, in 1949, Nancy's brother, John, was born.

Fred and Nancy Brinson presently live on Rural Route No. 1, Danville.

William III followed his father and became a funeral director. They established Brill and Son, but upon the death of the elder William, his son went into another line of business.

Virginia, after graduating from Indiana University, followed a business career interlinked with politics and civic affairs, much like her mother who was active in the civic and social affairs of Danville at the time when the town was starting to grow and become conscious of its responsibility as a progressive community. Virginia married Dean C. Boettcher of Clinton, Wisconsin.

William Thomas Brill II died on June 16, 1936. Clemence Arion Brill died on January 20, 1947.

HARRY R. BRINSER FAMILY

Harry Raymond Brinser, a resident of Hendricks County for over 50 years, was born in Orange County, Indiana, on September 28, 1892. He is a descendant of pioneer Orange County citizens. One of the pioneers, Jonathan Lindley, came to the Indiana Territory in 1809 from North Carolina. He returned to North Carolina, and in 1811 brought with him 90 settlers, most of them Quakers, to the Indiana wilderness.

Gen. William Henry Harrison passed through Paoli on September 14, 1811, with Captain Spencer's Rangers, the Yellow Jackets, en route from Corydon to Vincennes and Tippecanoe. General Harrison was an overnight guest of Jonathan Lindley.

Zachariah Lindley, Jonathan's son, joined the army and was wounded at Tippecanoe. These events are noted in an article, "Lost River is Unique," in the October, 1969, issue of Outdoor Indiana.

Other Hendricks County residents who are descendants of Jonathan Lindley are the families of the late John A. Servies of Danville and Charles Lindley of Pittsboro.

Harry R. Brinser and his wife, Ora McClain Brinser (B. February 15, 1895, D. October 12, 1970) lived on a farm in Washington Township that was acquired by Mrs. Brinser's grandfather in 1850. Harry Brinser has operated the farm, and for over 30 years operated a maple sugar camp and sold maple syrup. He is a World War I veteran and worked for automobile companies in Indianapolis in the early years of the auto industry. He is a member of the American Legion, Scottish Rite and Murat Shrine.

Ora Brinser's grandfather, Michael McClain, came alone to Indiana in 1830 to look for a new home site. He traded his horse, bridle and saddle for 40 acres in Washington Township, then returned on foot to his family at Lexington, Kentucky.

Michael was born in Virginia and married Jane Patton in Kentucky. He was a harness maker by trade, having served in his youth as an apprentice. He was the father of 10 children. Two of his sons, Gilbert D. and Bascom S. McClain, and a nephew, John S. McClain, served in the Civil War. His nephew, John McClain, was wounded at the Battle of Stones River, and lost a leg.

Descendants of Michael McClain live in Washington Township on land that includes the original 40 acres.

Ora Brinser's great great-grandfather, Job Osborn, settled in Hendricks County's Mill Creek area in 1828. He was a Quaker from North Carolina. His daughter-in-law, Rebekah Osborn, told her grandchildren that when she was a young girl living at Mill Creek, there were Indians in the area; they were friendly and would come to the door of her parents, who, at that time, just had a quilt nailed up at the doorway.

Harry R. Brinser and the late Mrs. Brinser are the parents of two daughters, Betty Brinser Shields and Martha Brinser Freeman, and the grandparents of Fred Freeman, Susan Freeman Taylor, Carole Ann Freeman Tucker, and Lyndon Shields.

Harry Brinser's grandson, Lyndon Shields and son-in-law, Donald Shields, are descendants of an early settler who came to Clay Township. Donald Shields is a great-great grandson of James Nesbit, who was a pioneer settler in Morgan County and moved in the 1830s to the Mill Creek area.

The Brill family home in Center Valley, the birthplace of Judge George Brill, William Thomas Brill, Nettie Brill Sparks and Bess Brill. Photo was taken about 1900.

William III followed his father and became a funeral director. They established Brill and Son, but upon the death of the elder William, his son went into another line of business.

Virginia, after graduating from Indiana University, followed a business career intermixed with politics and civic affairs, much like her mother who was active in the civic and social affairs of Danville at the time when the town was starting to grow and become conscious of its responsibility as a progressive community. Virginia married Dean O. Boettcher of Chilton, Wisconsin.

William Thomas Brill II died on June 16, 1936. Glenrose Acton Brill died on January 30, 1947.

HARRY R. BRINER FAMILY

Harry Raymond Briner, a resident of Hendricks County for over 50 years, was born in Orange County, Indiana, on September 28, 1892. He is a descendant of pioneer Orange County citizens. One of the pioneers, Jonathan Lindley, came to the Indiana Territory in 1809 from North Carolina. He returned to North Carolina, and in 1811 brought with him 80 settlers, most of them Quakers, to the Indiana wilderness.

Gen. William Henry Harrison passed through Paoli on September 14, 1811, with Captain Spencer's Rangers, the Yellow Jackets, enroute from Corydon to Vincennes and Tippecanoe. General Harrison was an overnight guest of Jonathan Lindley.

Zachariah Lindley, Jonathan's son, joined the army and was wounded at Tippecanoe. These events are related in an article, "Lost River Is Unique," in the October, 1969, issue of Outdoor Indiana.

Other Hendricks County residents who are descendants of Jonathan Lindley are the families of the late John A. Springer of Danville and Charles Lindley of Pittsboro.

Harry R. Briner and his wife, Ora McClain Briner (B. February 19, 1896; D. October 15, 1970) lived on a farm in Washington Township that was acquired by Mrs. Briner's grandfather in 1830. Harry Briner has operated the farm, and for over 30 years opeated a maple sugar camp and sold maple syrup. He is a World War I veteran and worked for automobile companies in Indianapolis in the early years of the auto industry. He is a member of the American Legion, Scottish Rite and Murat Shrine.

Ora Briner's grandfather, Michael McClain, came alone to Indiana in 1830 to look for a new home site. He traded his horse, bridle and saddle for 40 acres in Washington Township, then returned on foot to his family at Lexington, Kentucky.

Michael was born in Virginia and married Jane Palmer in Kentucky. He was a harness maker by trade, having served in his youth as an apprentice. He was the father of 10 children. Two of his sons, Gilbert D. and Bascom S. McClain, and a nephew, John S. McClain, served in the Civil War. His nephew, John McClain, was wounded at the Battle of Stones River, and lost a leg.

Descendants of Michael McClain live in Washington Township on land that includes the original 40 acres.

Ora Briner's great-great-grandfather, Job Osborn, settled in Hendricks County's Mill Creek area in 1826. He was a Quaker from North Carolina. His daughter-in-law, Elizabeth Osborn, told her grandchildren that when she was a young girl living at Mill Creek, there were Indians in the area; they were friendly and would come to the door of her parents, who, at that time, just had a quilt nailed up at the doorway.

Harry R. Biner and the late Mrs. Briner are the parents of two daughters, Betty Briner Shields and Martha Briner Freeman, and the grandparents of Fred Freeman, Susan Freeman Taylor, Carole Ann Freeman Tucker, and Lyndon Shields.

Harry Briner's grandson, Lyndon Shields, and son-in-law, Donald Shields, are descendants of an early settler who came to Clay Township. Donald Shields is a great-great-grandson of James Kendall, who was a pioneer settler in Morgan County and moved in the 1830s to the Mill Creek area.

FRED BRINSON FAMILY

On May 31, 1958, Fred Brinson married Nancy Kelly in Indianapolis. They have two children: Ken, born on December 30, 1959, and Kathy, born on October 27, 1963.

In the spring of 1968, Fred and Nancy Brinson began building a home in Avon, in Hendricks County. They moved into their new home on their 10th wedding anniversary.

Nancy Kelly's family dates back more than 100 years in Hendricks County.

On March 13, 1849, Nancy's great-grandmother, Anne Francis Estes, was born at Belleville. Little is known about her life in Belleville, except that she became the second wife of Isaac Herring in 1882 and they lived in Missouri where their only child, Nancy's grandmother, Cora Herring, was born on June 16, 1884.

While visiting relatives in Indiana, Cora met Harry Irwin. Although she returned to Missouri it wasn't long before Harry convinced her that Indiana should be her home. On October 30, 1907, Cora married Harry and they set up housekeeping on a farm near Columbus in Decatur County.

Cora and Harry Irwin had four children: Francis (B. 1909), Franklin Isaac (B. 1911; D. 1962), Clara (B. 1913) and Helen (B. 1914), mother of Nancy.

In 1936, Helen Irwin married Eugene Clayton Kelly, whom she had known since childhood. They moved to Indianapolis where, in 1940, Nancy was born. Six years later, a sister, Ruth, was born. Three years later, in 1949, Nancy's brother, John, was born.

Fred and Nancy Brinson presently live on Rural Route No. 1, Danville.

Drive Smart Kentucky!

Speed Limit
65 mph on rural sections of Kentucky's interstates and on most parkways. Other roads as posted.

Child Restraints
Federally approved child restraint seats are required by Kentucky law for all children 40 inches tall or less.

Turning
Kentucky has a right turn on red law, unless an intersection sign states otherwise.

Driving Under the Influence
Kentucky is friendly when drivers are sober. Our strict new DUI laws include a BAC (blood/alcohol ratio) of .08 (.02 if under 21 years of age) and prohibit any open alcohol containers anywhere in the vehicle.

Seat Belts
Kentucky has a mandatory seat belt law, so please buckle up!

U-turns
U-turns are legal unless a sign states otherwise.

PEDESTRIANS ~ Walk with caution

- Make sure motorists can see you.
- Teach young children to wait for a green light or walk signal at a traffic light and look left, right and left again before crossing highway.
- Wear reflective or white clothing when walking at night, dusk or dawn. Carry a flashlight.
- If the"DON'T WALK" signal flashes when you are partway across the street, continue to walk in the same direction; you have time to reach the other side.
- Cross at crosswalks. Yield to traffic in a location without a crosswalk.
- Watch for vehicles turning "Right-on-Red." Make eye contact with drivers.
- When a sidewalk or shoulder is not available on a two-way roadway, walk on the left side of the roadway facing oncoming traffic.
- Remember large vehicles have "blind spots" - areas that the driver simply cannot see. Buses and trucks take longer to stop and more space to turn.
- Never walk along or attempt to cross interstate highways or parkways.

MOTORISTS ~ Drive with care

- Remember, motorist, vehicles cause severe injuries to pedestrians in crashes.
- Drive at a safe speed when approaching and crossing an intersection.
- Never try to beat a traffic light change.
- Turn "Right-on-Red", where permitted, after a full stop. Yield to pedestrians crossing in a crosswalk.
- Do not park on or block a sidewalk or crosswalk.
- Stop and yield for blind pedestrians using a white or metallic colored walking cane or a guide dog.
- Be alert for workers in a construction work zone. Obey work zone speed limits.
